Thanks for your note.

I am going to respond off the cuff rather than dig into my notes.

I found your info most interesting & will have to compare it with what I have in files.

A major difference is that I dont see a Polly Meacham listed as a child of Elijah—but this might be same daughter as "Mary"–will have to check.

Polly is child mentioned in Elijah's will as Polly Worth (sometimes spelled Wirt). I believe Elijah may have also had a child named "Asa," but perhaps this is also alternate name of one of boys mentioned.

I agree with you about last wife Frances Miles (I have it spelled with female spelling of "e", but could be she used "i")

Elijah, of course, was defintely married before marrying Frances–but some speculation as to whether he had two, three or more wives, in my books. As best as I have been able to determine he had a wife "Elizabeth Smith" before Frances, but not willing to swear on stack of Bibles about that.

Dont know for sure how our family ties in with Elijah of Montgomery Co–so will give a little background here, and maybe you know or will turn up something.

I have written a family book that covers our early ancestor to the South–an Elijah Mitcham who was born in about 1787 and settled in Georgia in around 1807. I also cover his descendants quite extensively.

I have some family correspondence from ladies now deceased that Elijah of Georgia was the son of Elijah Meacham who had been born in Nova Scotia, lived his early life in Conn. and who had resided with wife
Frances Miles Meacham in Montgomery Co, Va

When I first came upon this correspondence there were a # of things stated therein that I could not believe were true, but as time went on I found to be accurate. I would say 9 out of the 10 things have proven to be true–but the assertion that our Elijah was the son of Elijah of Montgomery Co, Va—I never have proven. Still, because so much other material turned out to be true–I can not dismiss this remark.

This is what I have learned: 1) In will there is no mention of a son Elijah Meacham, 2) In his pension applications he seems to only claim to have one son, Elijah Meacham, put also seems to assert that he is either dead or sick or something. (govt did sorta have means test in those days--so no doubt he was trying to look even more disadvantaged than he likely was), 3) apparently there is something on record, although I have not seen it, that he tried to have state look after son Elijah claiming he was too poor to do so, or the child was maybe disabled in some way or something of the sort.

In general, I would say the info I received from Va--doesnt match well with our Elijah of Georgia--and I havent come up with a good explanation yet.

Possiblities--our Elijah was another son of Elijah of Va--perhaps by earlier wife, or our Elijah may have been a nephew of the Elijah of Va--perhaps even taken into household for a while—or—many other possibilities. . .

What makes little sense is that those going from Va to Ga were usually not the real poor—a person needed at least a two year supply of goods for around 1800 Ga was mainly Indian occupied and wilderness. Also when Elijah settled in Ga he quickly became successful—and his children and grandchildren married into prominent families. All this just doesnt seem to fit with being a son of Elijah of Va—as from what I can gather he couldnt supply a child in this way—something just doesnt make sense—HELP?????????

Mary,

Nope, but I wish I did. When I managed to get my father to introduce me around the Montgomery Co Miles/Spradlin bunch, I didn't know about a Meachum connection, and I'm sure my father didn't either. Now, he's gone and I've "no hope" of getting back there soon to ask more questions now that I'm smarter. Sure wish more of those folks would get "internetted" ... ;)

Dear James:

I thought I would get back to you now and more later. I need to get all this Meacham data organized in some way so that it can be accessed without going through each box folder by folder etc. looking for someone. If I worked on this everyday all day long I expect I would be busy for at least 3 months. So give me a while to get this into my computer data base so I can handle it. Even though there is much duplication of data each page must be looked at to be sure an important bit of information is not overlooked.

I found a descendancy chart of your Elijah Meacham and his descent. You will need to prove this. This came to Burton's records from the individual on the cover sheet. I do not believe that he was the originator of this chart. There seems to be a Repository of Meacham data somewhere in the New England area that puts out information like this. I don't have a place for certain yet.

Pat Spearman has gotten in touch with me. I'm not certain how much I helped but I was able give a few directions.

My Jesse Meacham gave his place of birth as Virginia in the Census in Independence Co. AR. Born abt 1824. I have not found any connection for certain to family. There was another Meacham, Joshua Right Meachum, in the area who according to Clarence Meacham was born in Abingdon, VA in 1801, Page 285 of Families of the South. Census gives his birth as VA too. On page 300 is listed a William Meacham m. Nancy Darby who gave his birthplace in census as VA. Clarence does not list his father. I believe my Jesse, his name we believe was Jesse William Meacham, was related to this William and perhaps all three of these men born in Virginia were from the same family in some way. I base this on the fact that my Jesse married Eliza A. Brickey in Independence Co. AR.

A son of William Meacham & Nancy Darby, William Jesse Meacham, married Eliza Brickey's niece, Catherine Serena Barrett, the daughter of Julia Ann Brickey and spouse Jefferson Barrett. Burton has a descendancy chart where this William is lined up as the son of Banks Meacham & Wilmirth Williams. I can't defend either right now.

I will keep your charts and when I learn more I will get back to you. I would love to mark it up for you. I need time right now to get organized.

Regards

Dear Burton,

I received your letter, and am sending you a copy of the Family Tree that I have. I hope it can be some help to you. It looks like we might be related.

I would like to know where you got the Meacham Heritage Book. I think I would like to have one.

It was nice to hear from you and if you ever are out this way, stop by or give me a call.

Yours truly

MILITIA FINES—FOR NOT ATTENDING MUSTER

All males between the ages of 18 & 50 were required to serve in the militia. There was a muster for grenadiers, light infantry, artillery, riflemen, and cavalry once every two months, except in December, January and February; of every other company once every three months; a muster of each battalion in May each year; and a muster of each regiment in October of each year (Hening's Statutes, Vol. 13, p. 345). Those failing to attend such musters were fined.

Some names not in the tax lists appear in these records. They were probably primarily the young boys who still lived with their parents. The rate of emigration was high, and a large percentage of those who emigrated were young men; therefore, many of these boys moved away before they had property which would have caused them to appear in the tax lists, or moved into a home of their own. Their presence in the county will possibly never be indicated in any other place except in the militia fines. Some of those appearing in the fines, and not the tax lists, may have been transients who did not stay in Tazewell County until the next year's taxes were assessed.

Many individuals were guilty of missing musters. Only those who fell into one of two categories have been copied below: (a) those who did not appear in any Tazewell tax list between 1801 & 1820 (b) those who appeared in the militia fines before they appeared in the tax lists.

Lineage of Lewis Bailey, 5454 Wisconsin Avenue, Suite 1050, Chevy Chase, MD 20015. (A publication is planned entitled RICHARD BAILEY OF TAZEWELL COUNTY, VIRGINIA — AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS. All persons descended from this man are invited to send their lineages so that they may be included. After the book has been published, all research papers and correspondence will be deposited at the Virginia Historical Society in Richmond, Virginia.)

[1] George A. Bailey and Polly Graham were married 4 December 1894 in Wyoming County, West Virginia. Issue of this marriage: Bertha.Lee (m. 1st Harold Griffin & 2nd Olaf Peterson); Dessie Jane (m. Elmer Price); Leonard Charles (m. Belva Jellison and had ch: Frederick Earl); Cora (m. Harry Earl Beck and had ch: Dana Huston, and Naydene Lee); Fanny Lucille (m. Kenneth Monroe Hollinger and had ch: Kenneth, Phyllis Ann, and William Bailey); Moses Lewis (above); Noah Robert (m. Mary Elizabeth Lighthiser). After death of Polly, George A. married Laura Basham. Issue of second marriage: Homer Isaac (m. Hilda Marion and had ch: Susan Lynn, Sharon Faye, Patricia Gail); Elsa Dell (m. Harvey Alexander Martin and had ch: Peggy Jo, Phyllis Jean, and Shirley Anne).

[2] Asa Jewel Bailey and Mariam McKinney were married 23 August 1876 in Wyoming County, West Virginia. They were parents of three children: George Anderson (above), Peredine, and John D. Only George Anderson grew to maturity. Asa and Mariam are buried at Basin, West Virginia.

[3] The marriage of George D. and Christina took place in Mercer County, Virginia on 24 November 1857. Three children were born to them: Asa Jewell; Sidney Johnson (b. 30 Mar. 1862, m. Mary Mitcham, d. Summers Co., W.Va.); and Sallie Jane (b. 11 Dec. 1860, m. Gus Mitcham). After death of George D., Christina married W. H. Roach and resided in Wyoming County, West Virginia, where she died and is buried at Basin.

[4] The marriage of George C. and Frances Thompson is recorded in Monroe County, West Virginia. It took place 10 November 1814. Issue of this marriage: Nancy D. (m. Council Walker); Burrell (m. Nancy Bailey); Charlotte Temple (m. Eli Bailey); Thompson P. (m. 1st Nancy J. & 2nd Isabel Elizabeth Bailey); John W. (m. Anny McDonald); Jonathan S. (m. Ursula Walker); George Davidson (above); Matthew Alexander (n.m); Council W. (m. Nancy Smith); Elizabeth (m. Samuel Shrewsbury); Rebecca Jane (m. Monroe Shrewsbury); Katharine T. "Tealy" (m. Irvin H. Bailey).

[5] John was probably born in Chesterfield or Bedford (now Franklin) County, Virginia. According to Johnston's History of Middle New River Settlements he married Nancy Davidson. She died before 30 April 1806 as her name is not included on deed as legatee of John Davidson (Tz Dd 1-264). John lived across the street from where the Whitethorn School now stands in Bluefield. Children of John and Nancy: Jonathan (m. Elizabeth Thompson); George C. (above); Archibald (m. Elizabeth Lusk); Masten (m. Rebecca Harman); Martha (m. Henry Harman); Rebecca (m. James McComas); James (m. Polly Bailey).

[6] According to The History of Middle New River Settlements (page 377), Richard was born in England and married Annie Belcher. The former fact has not been proven and the latter appears erroneous. All deeds and other records in which the wife of Richard is mentioned, her name is given as Elizabeth, including a sale of property in Chesterfield County in 1763. Her last name was probably Belsher, as given, since other references also point to the relationship through the Belsher line; however, no marriage record has been located. The children of Richard and Elizabeth were: John (m. Nancy Davidson); James (m. Margaret Stinson); Richard (m. Isabel Ferguson); Chloe (m. 1st David McComas & probably 2nd David Lusk); Micajah (m. Naomi ______); Reuben (m. 1st Sarah Ferguson & 2nd Milly Belsher); Archibald (m. Agnes _____); Sarah (m. Samuel Lusk); Eli (m. Agnes "Nancy" Clark); Henry (m. Elizabeth Peters).

[7] Will of James is recorded in Chesterfield County (Will Bk 1-331). Legatees: wife, Lucy; children, Benjamin, James, Richard, Elizabeth Melton, Mary Daniel.

Pension Claims

Following the Revolutionary War there were a few men, such as Michael Kinser and James Murphy, who received pensions in 1786 because of disabling wounds. A few others became eligible under the Act of Congress of 1818, but the majority of Southwest Virginia soldiers applied for pensions in 1832 when a new act was passed for their benefit. Some few elderly military personnel filed under the Act of 1845, and a few widows filed at various times, claiming benefits for their widowhood.

It is noticeable that following the War there was a migration of soldiers to Southwestern Virginia—Jesse and Asa Hall moving from Dutchess County, New York, the Meachams from Connecticut, the Ewings from Prince Edward County, Virginia, Jacob Anderson, John Carper, and Henry Wysor from Frederick County, Virginia and John Steffey from Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Some moved from Southwest Virginia to western states, having served in Virginia—Peter Catron and John Francis to Wayne County, Kentucky, the Baughs to Pulaski County, Kentucky, Thomas Copenhaver, Jr. to Lincoln County, Missouri, and Christopher Trinkle to Washington County, Indiana—among many others.

A few men filed their original claims in other counties—for example Rice D. Montague filed in Cumberland County, Virginia, although his wife Ann, filed in Montgomery County. Peter Rife, mentioned in Pulaski County records, was transferred to rolls of Wythe County, where he died at an advanced age. Occasionally witnesses for the pensioners served in the same regiments, and although technically they are not pensioners, their names are included here since they do not seem to appear in other records. At least one soldier, Samuel Caddall from Rockbridge County, filed his claim in Montgomery County, but received no pension because he died a few months later. Robert English's declaration was returned because no evidence of his service was found.

Although the following lists are probably not complete, several sources were consulted in this compilation of over 130 names. The records of the National Archives have original papers on most soldiers. Many of the Virginia records have been abstracted for publication by Lucy Kate McGhee in 35 volumes, and John Frederick Dorman in more than 23 volumes in a continuing series. Much information can also be obtained from the local county records filed in the Court Orders. The Secretary of War reports of 1818 and 1835 and Over the Mountain Men by Worrell, and numerous other sources will also reveal limited information. The lists which follow are arranged alphabetically within counties of Montgomery, Wythe, Pulaski, Floyd, Grayson, and an additional list for those in other states who served in Southwest Virginia.

Lineage of Lewis Bailey, 5454 Wisconsin Avenue, Suite 1050, Chevy Chase, MD 20015. (A publication is planned entitled RICHARD BAILEY OF TAZEWELL COUNTY, VIRGINIA — AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS. All persons descended from this man are invited to send their lineages so that they may be included. After the book has been published, all research papers and correspondence will be deposited at the Virginia Historical Society in Richmond, Virginia.)

[1] George A. Bailey and Polly Graham were married 4 December 1894 in Wyoming County, West Virginia. Issue of this marriage: Bertha Lee (m. 1st Harold Griffin & 2nd Olaf Peterson); Dessie Jane (m. Elmer Price); Leonard Charles (m. Belva Jellison and had ch: Frederick Earl); Cora (m. Harry Earl Beck and had ch: Dana Huston, and Naydene Lee); Fanny Lucille (m. Kenneth Monroe Hollinger and had ch: Kenneth, Phyllis Ann, and William Bailey); Moses Lewis (above); Noah Robert (m. Mary Elizabeth Lighthiser). After death of Polly, George A. married Laura Basham. Issue of second marriage: Homer Isaac (m. Hilda Marion and had ch: Susan Lynn, Sharon Faye, Patricia Gail); Elsa Dell (m. Harvey Alexander Martin and had ch: Peggy Jo, Phyllis Jean, and Shirley Anne).

[2] Asa Jewel Bailey and Mariam McKinney were married 23 August 1876 in Wyoming County, West Virginia. They were parents of three children: George Anderson (above), Peredine, and John D. Only George Anderson grew to maturity. Asa and Mariam are buried at Basin, West Virginia.

[3] The marriage of George D. and Christina took place in Mercer County, Virginia on 24 November 1857. Three children were born to them: Asa Jewell; Sidney Johnson (b. 30 Mar. 1862, m. Mary Mitcham, d. Summers Co., W. Va.); and Sallie Jane (b. 11 Dec. 1860, m. Gus Mitcham). After death of George D., Christina married W. H. Roach and resided in Wyoming County, West Virginia, where she died and is buried at Basin.

[4] The marriage of George C. and Frances Thompson is recorded in Monroe County, West Virginia. It took place 10 November 1814. Issue of this marriage: Nancy D. (m. Council Walker); Burrell (m. Nancy Bailey); Charlotte Temple (m. Eli Bailey); Thompson P. (m. 1st Nancy J. & 2nd Isabel Elizabeth Bailey); John W. (m. Anny McDonald); Jonathan S. (m. Ursula Walker); George Davidson (above); Matthew Alexander (n. m); Council W. (m. Nancy Smith); Elizabeth (m. Samuel Shrewsbury); Rebecca Jane (m. Monroe Shrewsbury); Katharine T. "Tealy" (m. Irvin H. Bailey).

[5] John was probably born in Chesterfield or Bedford (now Franklin) County, Virginia. According to Johnston's History of Middle New River Settlements he married Nancy Davidson. She died before 30 April 1806 as her name is not included on deed as legatee of John Davidson (Tz Dd 1-264). John lived across the street from where the Whitethorn School now stands in Bluefield. Children of John and Nancy: Jonathan (m. Elizabeth Thompson); George C. (above); Archibald (m. Elizabeth Lusk); Masten (m. Rebecca Harman); Martha (m. Henry Harman); Rebecca (m. James McComas); James (m. Polly Bailey).

[6] According to The History of Middle New River Settlements (page 377), Richard was born in England and married Annie Belcher. The former fact has not been proven and the latter appears erroneous. All deeds and other records in which the wife of Richard is mentioned, her name is given as Elizabeth, including a sale of property in Chesterfield County in 1763. Her last name was probably Belsher, as given, since other references also point to the relationship through the Belsher line; however, no marriage record has been located. The children of Richard and Elizabeth were: John (m. Nancy Davidson); James (m. Margaret Stinson); Richard (m. Isabel Ferguson); Chloe (m. 1st David McComas & probably 2nd David Lusk); Micajah (m. Naomi ______); Reuben (m. 1st Sarah Ferguson & 2nd Milly Belsher); Archibald (m. Agnes _____); Sarah (m. Samuel Lusk); Eli (m. Agnes "Nancy" Clark); Henry (m. Elizabeth Peters).

[7] Will of James is recorded in Chesterfield County (Will Bk 1-331). Legatees: wife, Lucy; children, Benjamin, James, Richard, Elizabeth Melton, Mary Daniel.

[288] Brock, Virginia and Virginians, Vol. II, p. 875-876—Sketch on Robert S. Wingo—"Robert S. Wingo, born 15 February 1838, married Mary M. McNeil, daughter of James M. McNeil who was a shoemaker in Tazewell Court House, and a son of John McNeil, a planter of South Carolina."

[289] The will of Archibald was probated April 1840 (Tz Will Bk 2-162) and mentions his wife, Rachel; son, John; and daughter, Mary Pruett. Archibald was a Revolutionary War soldier and received a pension (see page 209).

[290] Was listed in the Kanawha County tax records in 1807, also the Cabell County 1810 tax records. Received a Revolutionary War pension (see page 209).

[291] St. Paul's Lutheran Church Records, Wythe County, Virginia—1776-1881 (Acquisition # 23601, Va. State Library), "Sarah, daughter of Andrey and Elizabeth Messersmith, was born on July 8, 1796. Sponsor—Magdalena Gunter."

[292] Lived in Montgomery County, Virginia in 1802 (Tz Dd 1-140). Moved to Hawkins County, Tennessee by 1818 (Tz Dd 3-2). On 26 June 1810 Lewis Milam was appointed attorney by: William Fletcher, Joshua Day, Edward Milam, James Milam, Henry Pruett, Aron Fletcher (all of Tazewell County) to sue for and recover money hid by James Milam, dec'd. and found by Mr. Lewis's son on the plantation where he died in Pittsylvania County (Tz Dd 1-446). According to lineage of Bonnie Sage Ball (see page 251) Aron Fletcher had married the widow of John Davis, whose maiden name had been Milam. This is substantiated by above and letter of Wm. B. Davis to Wm. M. Milam, started in footnotes #125 and #159, now continued: " . . . One of old William Milam's daughters married a Mr. Hughs and another married a Mr. Pruett. I know little of their families. I have met one of the boys, William, who moved from Virginia to this county and died here. My grandmother, Elizabeth (Milam), married John Davis who came to this country from Wales about 1775 and was married to Elizabeth Milam in Botetourt County in 1778, from this union there were seven children: William, Abigail, Mary, Nancy, John, Catharine, and Milam. Milam was born April 2, 1794 and his father died in July 1794. I am a son of Milam. My grandfather Davis was a soldier in the war for Independence—served under Genl. Marion and was at the Battle of King's Mt. and on the day of the battle his oldest son William was born. At the close of the war he was granted 640 acres of land in Washington County now Tennessee for his service. On this he lived at the time of his death . . . grandmother moved back to Virginia and her family was brought up there. . . My great grandfather, William Milam, married either a Miss Randolph or Miss Wineger, and I think a Miss Randolph—as my father always claimed kin with the Randolphs, the Floyds, and the Taylors. . . I could have known about this as I have seen my grandmother Davis often. . . I was born in Hawkins, now Hancock County, Tenn. March 6, 1827. I married a Miss Mirchell Jany. 18, 1850 and have always made my home here. We have raised 8 children: Milam H., Thos. L., Huldah, John R., Mary Ann, Pattie K., Agnes B., and Robert Lee . . . I was elected clerk of the circuit court in my county in 1847, read law and qualified to practice, went into the U.S. Army as Lt. and was promoted to Major in 1864, was U.S. Indian agent in 1866-9, elected to State Senate (of Tenn.) in 1890. . ."

[293] On 12 November 1801 John & Jane Hacney of Tazewell County sold to Solomon Milam of Campbell County, Virginia 150 acres (part of 250 acres granted Christian Shull on 15 July 1795) on Bluestone, for $300 (Tz Dd 1-67). Solomon married Nancy Harman, daughter of Daniel Harman, Sr. (Harman, Annals, Vol. II, p. 458).

[294] Swain, History of Logan County, West Virginia, p. 77, "Emile Mallard, usually called Miller, a Frenchman who had served under Lafayette in the Revolutionary War, made the first settlement near the town of Nolan. He settled after the war in what is now Tazewell County, and married Sallie Roark of Roark's Gap. Sallie had two children at the time of her marriage with Millard, both of whom came with Millard to his new settlement. They were John Deskins and Isaac Brewer. Millard and his brother, Charles, the grandfather of Ben and A.J. Millard, were in the county as early as 1792, at which time Charles was drowned in John's Creek, Kentucky, near the mouth of the creek now known as Miller's Creek. Emile Millard had three children, one son and two daughters. His son, whose name was Timothy, married Polly Boreman; and his daughters were Rachel, who married James Starr, and Rebecca, who married Arter White. . . " Ely, The Big Sandy Valley, p. 15, " About the time the Leslies came to the valley, say 1790, Charles and Emla Millard, the former the grandfather and the latter the grand-uncle of A. J. Millard, of Big Creek, came down on Tug from Clinch River to hunt bear and deer for their pelts. . . Charles was drowned." Emile Miller appears in the 1807 tax list of Kanawha County, the 1810 of Cabell, 1815 of Cabell, and the 1824 of Logan County.

[295] Brock, Virginia and Virginians, Vol. II, p. 867—Sketch on J. J. Sparks—"J. J. Sparks was born in Wilkes County, North Carolina on 23 October 1833, son of Jonas Sparks who was a farmer of Wilkes County, was himself born there, and was a son of Reuben Sparks. Jonas married Mary Brown, a daughter of John Brown of Wilkes County. The Sparks and Brown families came from Maryland to North Carolina . . . J. J. Sparks married Polly Hankins, daughter of Joseph Hankins and granddaughter of John Hankins who came from New Jersey. Her mother was Nancy, daughter of Charter Mitchell, who came to Tazewell from Eastern Virginia."

[298] Foote, Sketches of Virginia, p. 506, "A certain James Moore, of Scottish ancestry, born in Ireland, emigrated to America with his brother Joseph about the year 1726, and took their residence in Pennsylvania . . . James, some time after his arrival in America, married Jane Walker, also an emigrant from Ireland. Her father John Walker, of Wigton, Scotland, emigrated first to Ireland, became the head of a family of seven children, ~~of which~~ Jane was the fourth, and then, a few years after Mr. Moore, emigrated to Pennsylvania. After his marriage Mr. Moore resided in the Nottingham congregation for a number of years. His father-in-law, John Walker, having removed with the rest of the family to Rockbridge County, Virginia, and settled on a creek which bears the family name, Mr. Moore removed his wife and four children and took his residence with them, and made a part of what was pleasantly called by the neighbours, "the Creek Nation." Here six more children were added to his family . . . the sixth son, named after himself, was the father of Mary Moore, the wife of Rev. Samuel Brown. This James Moore, the sixth child of the emigrant James, was married to Martha Poage . . . after his marriage Mr. Moore resided for some years at a place long known as Newell's Tavern, a few miles south of the Natural Bridge. . . his cousin, Mr. Samuel Walker, on his return from an excursion to the south-western part of the State, to gather ginseng, gave a glowing account of the beauty and fertility of the valleys . . . Mr. Moore visited the country in company with his cousin and . . . resolved to remove his family to the lonely mountains of Tazewell. (There follows an account of the massacre and capture of part of Moore's family.) Many accounts of this capture are available: Kercheval, Samuel, A History of the Valley of Virginia, 3rd edition (Woodstock, Va., 1902); Pendleton, History of Tazewell County, p. 447-455, & 411-417; Harman, Annals of Tazewell, Vol. II, p. 497-502.

Chaulkley, Chronicles of the Scotch-Irish, Vol. II, p. 103—Poage's Heirs vs. Taylor & Ingles— "Samuel Walker deposes that in 1771 he came to App's Valley and found a settlement belonging to Isaac Blangy, or Ballingy, and in the fall of that year he showed Robert Poage some land, where he settled. The Indians came and he had to move his family to Col. Cloyd's. John Peery (blacksmith) deposes that in 1772 he came with Jacob Harman, Samuel Walker, James More and others to App's Valley and saw a cabin belonging to Luna (Looney), also Blangy's cabin. The next fall he came again with Robert Poage and others. Thomas Ingles lived in the Valley and left only because, after the battle at the Point, the people were afraid the Indians would revenge Cornstalk's death. Thomas had been a prisoner among the Indians. Thomas did not settle under Blangy, but under his father William's military claim. John Taylor purchased the land when Ingles moved off. From 1774 to 1781 there was great danger from Indians, especially in Abb's Valley. There were many people killed, but none in Abb's Valley. James Moore and John Davidson resided in Abb's Valley from 1773 to 1782. Moore was killed with part of his family by the Indians in 1786. Daniel Harman deposes, 1806, that he has known Abb's Valley by that name for 46 years. George Peery, brother of Thomas, deposes in 1806. Capt. Moore and Robert Poage were brothers-in-law. Moore's wife was a Poage. Captain Moore was killed by Indians in July, 1786. When Robert Poage left this country he went to Georgia. Joseph Allen swears, 1806, That William Mitchell of Kentucky is a material witness. Mitchel said he went with Poage to Abb's Valley in 1772. There was then a cabin called Blangy's or Ballanger's." < Note by author: In checking the original documents in this case, it is found that the answer to the question: Did James Moore and John Davidson live in Abb's Valley from 1773 to 1781 was answered, "James Moore did, I do not know about John Davidson." Perhaps the reason for this question was that John Davidson purchased 400 acres of land surveyed 20 April 1785, granted 16 March 1793 (Patent Bk. 27, p. 605) which was issued as a "certificate in right of settlement" of Thomas Looney. The land was assigned to John Davidson by James Bringham, who intermarried with Louisa Looney (sole heir and daughter of Thomas Looney, decd.). The land was located in Ap's Valley, and was adjacent to Moore's land. John Davidson had not lived in Abb's Valley from 1773 to 1782.>

Dear Mr. Sepp:

I am writing in response to your query in the May-June, 1983, issue of the Genealogical Helper. One of the several names listed in your query is MITCHEM. I am interested in this name and identical spelling, although the variants are many.

Enclosed are my ancestor chart and family work sheets. As you see, my success with the research on the Mitchem family is quite poor. The major problem I have encountered is the disappearance of William and Catherine Werts (Wort) Mitchem from the date of their marriage and removal to Ohio until locating their children living in the households of others in Pike Co., Ohio.

Three of the Children of William and Ella Conner Mitchem lived in Bartlesville, I.T., just prior to Oklahoma statehood. All of those children, by early 1920s had relocated to other areas, but family ties remained and some of the family are buried here at White Rose Cemetery. Due to my husband's transfer to Bartlesville nine years ago, I find myself a third generation Bartian, if only recently.

I am enclosing an SASE for your convenience to correspond.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

MILITIA FINES—FOR NOT ATTENDING MUSTER

All males between the ages of 18 & 50 were required to serve in the militia. There was a muster for grenadiers, light infantry, artillery, riflemen, and cavalry once every two months, except in December, January and February; of every other company once every three months; a muster of each battalion in May each year; and a muster of each regiment in October of each year (Hening's Statutes, Vol. 13, p. 345). Those failing to attend such musters were fined.

Some names not in the tax lists appear in these records. They were probably primarily the young boys who still lived with their parents. The rate of emigration was high, and a large percentage of those who emigrated were young men; therefore, many of these boys moved away before they had property which would have caused them to appear in the tax lists, or moved into a home of their own. Their presence in the county will possibly never be indicated in any other place except in the militia fines. Some of those appearing in the fines, and not the tax lists, may have been transients who did not stay in Tazewell County until the next year's taxes were assessed.

Many individuals were guilty of missing musters. Only those who fell into one of two categories have been copied below: (a) those who did not appear in any Tazewell tax list between 1801 & 1820 (b) those who appeared in the militia fines before they appeared in the tax lists.

Dear Cousin, John Lance:

How thrilled I was to receive your prompt reply to my inquiries! I, too, feel that my task of family research for the Hendricks-Johnson lines should have been undertaken years ago. My Aunt Myrtle Alice, who was truly a Hendricks, could have answered many of my questions had I started my work before her passing in 1970. After she entered a nursing home, two "dear friends" and her attorney had an estate sale and disposed of all Hendricks-Johnson memorabilia, including pictures(and Great-Grandmother's crystal berry bowl which came on the wagon, carefully wrapped in a quilt against breakage, when the Hendricks moved from Kentucky to Illinois. Aunt Myrtle gave me, many years ago, the matching sugar/creamer, so I would have gladly purchased the bowl, had we been notified of the sale). To my knowledge, no one has a picture of Grandmother Nancy, so must think they were gone with the sale at Iola.

During June, last, Mother and I went to Oswego to do some research and visited the Oswego Historical Museum, a small, but most interesting collection of Oswego past. To our delight, we found displayed a picture of the judge, George Washington Hendricks, with a gathering of Civil War veterans. The curator had a duplicate and gave it to me. The paper board on which it is mounted is quite crumbled, but the photo is in excellent condition-a very interesting old photo taken in 1911.

I, also, have a letter written by Grandfather Hendricks and dated on, 17 June 1899. It was written on his business stationery, which proclaims: G. W. Hendficks, Attorney-At-Law; Notary Public; Justice of the Peace; and Collections made at all accessible points. It was written to his young grandchildren, Myrtle, Beulah and Howard and shows such humor. Aunt Myrtle gave it to Mother in 1963, so it is one of the few items remaining and the rest gone with the sale.

Aunt Sis did have one son, Elbert. I believe her husband's name was John. I would like to have the address in Columbus of the son of Elbert Gillon.

Mother and Dad were here for a few days at Thanksgiving. She told me that Laura Alice Kengle had informed my Aunt Ruth Johnston that Dr. George Kengle was now deceased. Laura Alice is now in a nursing home.

Mother(Mabel) and Aunt Ruth are the only surviving children of Ella Hendricks Mitchem. Mother will be 70 on 6 May 1978 and Aunt Ruth, who lives in Temple, Texas, is 74 years.

I had not realized until your letter that your retirement was 1963. I had an interest and knowledge of your work, because of my love for basketball and the fact that I married a very good man, who happened to be, also, a very good basketball player. Dick played at Tulsa University for Coach Clarence Iba from 1950-54. He still holds the unbroken record, All Missouri Valley-First Team for his four years at TU.

I know you are off soon for your Winter stay on South Padre Island, so hope to get this letter to you before you depart and being "ardent fishermen" wish you much luck.

Also, Will enclose some genealogy worksheets, which I hope you will fill out for your parents and your family when you return from your holiday trip. I was in Pittsburg during the Summer for only overnight at the Holiday Inn, but wish I had gotten the information at that time.

Again, enjoyed your letter and my thanks for sharing a bit of family history with your "first cousin-once removed", which is the correct title for our family relationship, I believe, since you and Mother are first cousins.

Sincerely Yours,

Mrs. Richard Nunneley

Dear Barbara:

Enclosed is my Mitchem information. William Harrison Mitchem, my great-grandfather and Orrin Ometa Mitchem, my grandfather. I just can't seem to get beyond my great-grandfather.

Even though he was born Pike Co., Ohio and married Fayette Co., Ohio - still have not really located him in either place, unless Wm Micham(1850 Census, Pike Co., Ohio, in family #39 Butcher) is the one I am looking for -

Hope you will keep this information and pass it on to anyone who may contact you for any Mitchem and various spellings.

Will contact John P. Mitchem of Sedgwick, Kansas again with my mislaid or waylaid letter in hopes he will share the information his mother obtained from our family years ago. Guess I should check to see if his sister, I believe her name to be, Lola Mitchem Bowman of Denver, is a member of the DAR. This was supposedly the reason the Mrs. Mitchem contacted our family for information.

Thanks for sharing your information on the M's and am enclosing an SASE in case you or someone who contacts you can add later. Will send anything I find as I work further.

By the way, understand Washington state is a great place to visit - Dick's brother is commander of Puget Sound Naval Station at Bremerton. They had always lived on the East coast until he took command of PSNS and they really like living in Wash. Guess we will have to make our first trip to your state.

Again, thanks much for the information.

Sincerely,

Mrs. R. D. Nunneley

Dear Mr. Mitchem:

While working on my Mitchem family genealogy, I came across a copy of a letter which I sent to you in July, 1977. Realizing that I had not heard from, I feel that I must have mislaid the letter and that you probably did not receive it.

Several years ago, your mother was doing similar work on the Mitchem genealogy and contacted my aunt, Myrtle Mitchem Grove, and my uncle, Wilbur Mitchem for information. Since both are now deceased, my source for Mitchem information is rather scarce. I would, very much, appreciate any information your mother was able to gather from my family concerning our Mitchem line.

I am enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope for your convenience in writing to me.

Thank you for helping me and wish your family a good year, 1978.

Sincerely,

Mary R. M. Nunneley

Dear Mr. Lance:

I am writing with hope that you can assist me in my family research of my Hendricks/Johnson lines. My grandmother was Ella Adaline Hendricks Mitchem.

Enclosed is a genealogical worksheet with the small amount of information which I have been able to obtain. I would appreciate any information you might add or any corrections that are necessary.

I believe the parents of George Washington Hendricks(your grandfather and my great-grandfather)could be: James Hendricks, born ca 1816 in Kentucky, and Sarah Brown Hendricks, born ca 1817 in Kentucky, but have been unable to find such proof. I hope that you may have records or knowledge which can confirm this information.

After months of research, I have been unable to find the names of the parents of Nancy S. Johnson Crane Hendricks(your grandmother and my great-grandmother). I have, possibly, found one brother of Nancy S. Johnson, an Augustus Prout Johnson, who lived at Weir, Kansas and died there on 21 Feb 1902. I have contacted two of the grandchildren of Augustus Johnson who remember their Aunt Nancy Hendricks, but they could give no information concerning their great-grand parents.

I should stop here and explain who I am - the daughter of Mabel Inez Mitchem Metzinger. I started this family research in 1962, but found that I did not have enough time to pursue such a "busy" hobby. Now that the children are grown(Dick, Jr., 24 and teaching at Claremore College, Mike, 22 and teaching at Gould Junior High, both in Okla.)we have only Kathleen, 14, so I have some time, again, to devote to such projects.

Although I have never met my Lance cousins, I feel that I know them from family stories and the pictures in my possession that are in my Grandmother Mitchem's photograph album.

Enclosed, a stamped, self-addresses envelope for your convenience and hope that you can help answer my many questions or direct me to someone who may have this Hendricks/Johnson information I am seeking.

Sincerely,

Mary R. M. Nunneley(Mrs. Richard D.)

The Florida vote counting on TV reminds me that it has been about a month since the election and, therefore, about a month since I promised to send you this information. Slow but sure, sometimes.

Henry P. Johnston (!), editor: The Record of Connecticut Men in the Military and Naval Service During the War of the Revolution, 1775-1783," published under the authority of the Adjutant-General of Connecticutt. Hartford: 1889. On p. 188, Elijah Meachim, residence Enfield, is listed among members of Capt. John Harmon's Company, Fourth Regiment, formation of 1771-1781, "The Connecticut Line," of the Continental Army. He enlisted January 18, 1778, for the duration of the war. No discharge date is given. He must have been barely more than 16 when he enlisted.
This unit was recruited mainly from Windham and New London counties. The book traces the history of this unit and shows it was in the battle of Germantown, Oct 4, 1777, and the battle of Monmouth, June 28, 1778, and many others. It wintered at Valley Forge, 1777-78. After a reorganization of Continental Army units, Pvt. Elijah Meecham is listed (p. 351) in Captain Jonathan Heart's company of Connecticut light infantry. From February to November, 1781, this unit was part of Lafayette's command. It was among several units organized to march rapidly to Virginia (I didn't note from where) to keep British General Arnold out of the state. It didn't succeed but remained in Virginia, taking part in the siege of Yorktown until its surrender, October 19, 1781, virtually ending the war, which, I am sure, was largely the work of Elijah.
On p. 645 Elijah Meacham, private, is listed among only four Connecticut men in Virginia receiving pensions under the Act of 1818.
Sorry to be so slow in getting this to you. I also recall I was going to look for the Melungeon book in the local genealogy library but I haven't been back there. I have been spending my genealogy time at the LDS center plowing through hundreds and hundreds of miles of microfilmed Virginia court records looking for Johnstons, Buckners, Chews, Roys, Wallers, etc. hoping to find some reference to my ggggrandfather William Waller Johnston that would definitely tie him to my supposed gggggrandfather, Richard Johnston, son of William Johnston and Ann Chew and, also, help sort out all the folks of those surnames. Finding lots of them (not William Waller) but not much luck sorting them out.
Kind Regards,
Cousin Joe.

Have checked what I have concerning the land in Montgomery Co. VA. There may be more, but the following:
Platt Book E - do not have the page
Surveyed for Elijah Meacham, 34 acres by virtue of and entry made 21 Aug 1792 on a land office treasury warrant No 12.016 granted to Samuel Lewis the 15 day of May 1782 (then follows the description). Not for RW service of Elijah Meacham.
Platt Book (not shown) - page 259
Surveyed for Elijah Meacham, 50 acres by virtue of an entry made the 21 day of Aug 1792, a land office treasury warrant No 12.016 granted to Samuel Lewis the 15 day of May 1782 (then follows the description). Not for RW service of Elijah Meacham.
Montgomery Co. VA Deeds:
Book C - pages 522/523
Elijah Meacham and Sarah his wife to John Casseday, 50 acres for $100.00. March or May 1802. All parties of Montgomery Co. VA
Book G pages 475/476
Elijah Meacham and Sally, his wife to William Meacham. 100 acres for $150.00. All parties of Montgomery Co. VA. 4 Jul 1820
Book I-J - page 439
Elijah D. Meacham and Sally, his wife to James Meacham. 50 acres for $25.00. All parties of Montgomery Co. VA. 9 Feb 1827
Book K - page 116
Elijah D. Meacham to Simeon Meacham and William Wirt. 125 acres for $50.00.
$25.00 from Simeon Meacham and $25.00 from William Wirt. 28 May 1828. All parties of Montgomery Co. VA.
Book K - pages 228/229
Elijah D. Meacham to James Barnet, sheriff of Montgomery Co.. 100 acres for $1.00. Fifty acres of which were conveyed to Simeon Meacham and William Wirt. (was this land taken up for debt on 22 Nov 1828 ?). Later deeds seem to indicate that this same land was later in the hands of the Meacham and Wirt families.
Book M - pages 39/40
William Wirt and Mary, his wife to Elijah D. Meacham, Sr. 125 acres for $40.00. It being the land which was conveyed to William Wirt and Simeon Meacham by the said Elijah D. Meacham by deed dated 28 Mar 1828.
Book M - page 136
William Meacham and Catherine, his wife to Henry Walters. 25 Sep 1836. (This deed is almost illegible)
Book N - pages 338/339
James R. Meacham of Ohio to Henry Walters of Montgomery Co. VA. 50 acres for $20.00. 19 Apr 1843. Land conveyed by Elijah Meacham and wife to James Meacham.
Book N - pages 411/412
Simeon Meacham and Priscilla, his wife to John Hambrick. 125 acres for $55.00. Oct. 1843. Land conveyed by Elijah Meacham to Simeon Meacham and William Wirt by deed on 31 Mar 1828.

Usually, you can take the deeds for a person and easily follow the total number of acres acquired (from whom and when) and the total number of acres sold (to whom and when) and arrive at zero acres or the number of acres still retained by the purchaser. This is certainly not the case with Elijah D., Sr. and Sarah Meacham.
The total acres for the original warrants to Elijah seems to be 84 acres. Yet, Elijah and Sarah appear to have sold, at least the following:
100 acres to William Meacham
50 acres to James Meacham
125 acres to Simeon Meacham and William Wirt
All of the other deeds appear to cover the 125 acres they sold to Simeon and William Wirt. Since it is so confusing, I will order the Platt/Plott Books and Deed Books from the Virginia State Library and see if we are missing some of the records. These books are on microfilm and available for inter-library loan. Will be busy until the end of May, so will order them early June. I do not want them to arrive when I am gone.
Later,
Mary

Dear Cheryl,

Received your name from Sue Swain when she shared the birthdates you found of Elijah and Sarah Meacham and their children.

I have researched Elijah and family for about 25 years and would be happy to share my material (and find out more about Jedediah and his family).

I descend as follows:

Elijah and Sarah
William (1801-bef 1846) and Catherine Wirt - to Ohio
William Harrison (now) Mitchem and Ella Ann Conner - to Kansas
Orrin Ometa Mitchem and Ella Adaline Hendricks - to Oklahoma
Mabel Inez Mitchem and Raymond Henry Metzinger (my parents)

I am new on the computer - just bought one, so am unable to figure out as yet, how to send "anything"......so if you will E-Mail me your name and postal address, I will send you the research on the family.

INTRODUCTION

This volume of the Montgomery County Will Book 1 - 1786-1809 is an abstraction of the contents of this court record. There are a couple of things to bear in mind while researching through this volume:

1. All names are given as recorded - the spelling is kept just as written even when there is a variation within the same section. Some names are never spelled the same way twice and some are never mis-spelled.

2. A Will Book contains more than just Wills. There are Inventories, Settlement, Accounts and Dowder Settlements on many of the wills themselves. Also found in this volume are some land transactions, some road works, some slaves and properties sales and in a couple of cases, there are court actions. In each case, there is an abstracting of the contents of each item.

3. A Surname Index is included and a note is made on the index that on some pages, the surname is mentioned more than once. Each page will have to be studies carefully.

4. The page number of the original court book is given in the manuscript, not page by page, but by items. Most of the time, the item will be found on more than one page. You may use this as a reference to the original source, either on microfilm or in the court house. If you request a copy of these pages from the clerk of the court you can specify the pages needed.

5. An abstract gives more than the original as far as the indexing is concerned. The original index gives on the major name on the item, but this abstract gives an index to all surnames in the material.

6. We have tried to read this material as carefully as possible, but frequently the original hand written form is difficult to read and there is always the difference in the way letters are rendered, i.e. "...is that an 'L' or 'S'?" or "...is that an 'a' or 'o'?. We are very familiar with the names of the area and know most of them instinctively as a results of genealogical research in the area for almost thirty years.

Happy researching:

Montgomery in the War Between the States

With the year 1861 came the storm of civil war. It was the opening scene of the grandest drama which has appeared on the theatre of the world's history, and before it had spent its force and died away, a half million men had bled and died and untold millions of treasures had wasted. All over the land, north and south, east and west, was seen and heard such a marshalling of battling hosts as had never before been witnessed on this continent. Regiment after regiment and corps after corps were hastily equipped and hurried away to the seat of war. Virginia championed the cause of her southern sisters, and called upon her sons to defend her right and keep back from her soil the foot of the armed invader. Nowhere in all her wide domain did that call meet with a more ready response than in Montgomery County, as is evidenced by the fact that she sent nearly One Thousand men to do battle in defense of the commonwealth of which it was an integral factor. The following long chapter shows how well she did her part, and also the names and record of the men--descendants, many of them, of soldiers of other wars. Immediately after the John Brown raid upon Harpers Ferry, three companies were organized in the county for the purpose of defending the State against insurrections. These were of course ready when the war began, and were the first from the county to enter the field. One of them was the Fort Lewis Volunteers. Afterward, Company "B", Fourth Virginia Infantry. (Where no date is given of death or discharge, the service was until the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia. Where no rank is given, the enlistment was a private. In the miscellaneous service are also given of ex-soldiers who served from other counties, now residents of Montgomery County).

Part I. January 9, 1891.

I propose to write a few articles in the Messengers in regard to the part of Montgomery and her inhabitants, and this I do at the suggestion of some friends, who take interest in ancient things, and who fear that, if not attended to now much that would be of interest to the present and generations to come to know will be forever beyond the power of anyone to tell.

I shall rely mainly upon my own recollections of both what I have seen and what I have heard from others, and appeal to the few of the preceeding and my own generation to correct an inaccuracies in statement which I may from sheer fallibility, fall into. And let me frankly say, that whilst there may be much in "in ye olden times" old and new and strange that I may be able to communicate to the children of today, there is far more and of deeper interest in the earlier period of the country's history of ours which I know nothing and can say nothing. It is to me, and I fear to the oldest now living a Terra Incognita. I will touch them first what is more nearly within the bounds of my own knowledge, and begin with Christiansburg and its citizens, when a child and in boyhood I knew what was their occupation, place of residence, etc. ..

We start with William Newell, A Taylor a Marylander, whose residence was on the spot where Robt. Gardner's new residence now stands, and just beyond was the humble cabin of Jenny Wylie, afterwards occupied by Mary Lane, who went with her husband, Giles Gordon, drummer in Charlton's command, Col. James Preston's regiment, in "The trip to Canada" in 1812. The next citizens was Dr. Morrison, who occupied a building reared by Capt. Joe Barnett, in which Barnett resided for some time, but removed before my recollection, to South Fork of Roanoke, his original birthplace, Morrison's Red House stood where Judge Junkins resides, and was the same property which the late Rice D. Montague purchased and improved, and in which he lived and died.Mr. Montague came at the request of Capt. Charles Taylor, to Montgomery County about the year 1820, to act as Deputy Clerk, and afterwards succeeded him as Clerk-elect of both courts of the County. Reminiscences of the Past

[illegible], Virginia

Part I. - January 9, 1891.

I propose to write a few articles in the Messenger in regard to the past of Montgomery and her inhabitants, and this I do at the suggestion of some friends, who take interest in ancient things, and who fear that, if not attended to now, much that would be of interest to the present and generations to come to know will be forever beyond the power of anyone to tell.

I shall rely mainly upon my own recollections of much that I have seen, and that I have heard from others, and appeal to the few of the yet living and my own generation to correct me if incorrect in statements which I may [illegible] memory, fail, etc. And let me frankly say, that whilst there may be much in the [illegible] and men and events that I may be able to communicate to the citizens of today, there is far more and of deeper interest in the earlier period of the country's history of ours which I know nothing and can say nothing. It is to me, and I fear to the oldest now living, a terra incognita. I will touch upon what is more nearly within the bounds of my own knowledge, and begin with Christiansburg and its citizens, when a child and in boyhood I knew what was their occupation, place of residence, etc.

To start with William [illegible], a Taylor a Pennsylvanian, whose residence was on the spot where [illegible] Gardner's new residence now stands, and just beyond was the humble cabin of [illegible], afterwards occupied by Mary Lane, who went with the husband, Silas [illegible], in Charlton's company, Col. James Preston's a regiment, in "The trip to Canada" in 1812. The next citizens was Dr. [illegible], who occupied a building owned by Capt. Joe Barnett, in which Barnett resided for some time, but removed before my recollection, to [illegible] of Roanoke, the original [illegible], [illegible]'s old house stood where Judge [illegible] resides and the same property which the late [illegible] purchased and improved, and in which he lived and died. Mr. [illegible] came at the request of Capt. [illegible] to Montgomery County about the year 1820, to act as County Clerk, and afterwards appointed him as Clerk of both courts of the County. As a citizen and public officer and ruling elder in the Presbyterian Church Mr. [illegible] stood in the very first rank and deserved to [illegible] a worthy, reliable and most esteemable man.) In a rear building on the Montague lot Major William Clark, carpenter, first lived when he came down from New York about 1822. Among other structures in Christiansburg and the vicinity, he was the builder of the old Methodist Church that stood in the center of the Kyle cemetery north of the town. This was the first church edifice built in Christiansburg in the year 1825, and has long since disappeared.

William, Jeremiah and John Kyle, merchants native of Ireland. William's residence and store room were on the spot now owned by Major R. D. M. Charlton. The first buildings were destroyed by fire in the year 1816, and were re-erected by William. After his death in 1834 he was succeeded by his brother Jeremiah who public spirit and private worth is still remembered, by many yet living.

Opposite Kyle's, where Mr. Dunklee now lives, was the residence of John Chapman, attorney. The building, I believe, is the same as the frame but much improved by re-weatherboarding and painting.

The next house and lot, front and rear was the property of Major Jacob Zoll, hatter, where Mr. Tallant's new furniture room now stands. Mr. Zoll was a native of Reading, Pa., and a man of honor, highly esteemed by the leading citizens both of Montgomery and adjacent counties, In the latter years of his life he removed to New River on land held by his wife (now owned by his son James). He died only a few years ago, comparatively, at the ripe old age and was one of the writer's favorite old friends.

Next, and on the same side of Main Street, where Mrs. Caspari lives, was the home of Capt. James Bratton, who died in 1814. His wife was a daughter of Col. Wm. Fleming, M.D., who served as an officer under the command of Gen. Andrew Lewis in the battle of Point Pleasant, Oct. 1774.

On the opposite side, where Hubbard Smith resides, Dr. George Anderson's house stood, the same as it now is only as repairs were needed, and one the few original houses that were frame buildings. Dr. Anderson together with his brothers John, James, and William, once residents of Christiansburg, were originally from Augusta County. The Doctor witnessed the burning of the Kyle house, but died suddenly shortly afterwards in 1815. His widow, who was a Douglas, was married afterwards to Hamilton Wade, a worthy gentleman, and in high regard among his fellow citizens, who house of open door was known for many years, as the Methodist Preacher's Home. He died of apoplexy, when absent from home on business, in Bath County.

Just above where Figgatt house is, was McDaniell's house, quite a small building, and on the opposite side, standing where the Johnston house (now occupied by J. Y. Jett) was the Calvert building. This last was the house in which John McHenry, who fought the duel with Thomas Lewis on the 1st Monday in May, 1808, died. In the same building J. S. Crockett kept a store for several years.

II.

On the corner, known as the Bank house, where the daughters of the late Charles B. Gardener now reside, was the old homestead of Capt. David Page, carpenter. Not a vestage of this house - part of which was among the earliest in the town remain. And nothing is left to remind one of the place as it once [illegible] is a frame building on the frontage lot. Major William Clark, [illegible] man) first lived when he came down from New York about 1832. Among other residences in Christiansburg and the vicinity, he was the builder of the old Methodist Church that stood in the centre of the Kyle [illegible] north of the town. This was the first church edifice built in Christiansburg in the year 1833, and has long since disappeared.

William, Alexander and John Kyle, merchants native of Ireland. William's residence and store [illegible] were on the spot now owned by Major A. [illegible] The first buildings were destroyed by fire in the year 1839, and were re-erected by William. After his death in 1854 he was succeeded by his brother [illegible] whose public and private worth is still remembered by many yet living.

Opposite Kyle's, where Mr. Doozier now lives, was the residence of John [illegible], attorney. The building, I believe, is the same as the first but much improved by reconstructing and painting.

The next house and lot, front and rear, was the property of Major Joseph [illegible], hatter, where Mr. Tallent's new furniture room now stands. Mr. [illegible] was a native of Reading, Pa., and a man of honor, highly esteemed by the leading citizens of Montgomery and adjacent counties. In the latter years of his life he removed to New River on land held by his wife (now owned by his son [illegible]). He died only a few years ago, comparatively, at the ripe old age and was one of the writer's favorite old friends.

Next, and on the east side of Main Street, where Mrs. [illegible] lives, was [illegible], and he died in 1845. His wife was a daughter of the name of Capt. James [illegible], who served as an officer under the command of Gen. Col. Wm. Fleming, [illegible], [illegible] in the battle of Point Pleasant, Oct. 1774.

On the opposite side, where Herbert [illegible] resides, Dr. George Johnston's [illegible] porch stood, the same as it now is only as repairs were needed, and one [illegible] original houses that were frame buildings. Dr. Anderson, together with his [illegible] John, James, and William, were residents of Christiansburg, [illegible] the burning of the Kyle house, [illegible] from Augusta County. The Doctor witnessed [illegible] but died suddenly shortly afterwards in 1845. His widow, who was a Douglas, [illegible] and in high regard [illegible] among his fellow citizens, [illegible] the [illegible] home. He died [illegible] when absent from home at [illegible], in [illegible] County.

Just above where [illegible] house is, was [illegible]'s house, quite a small [illegible], and on the opposite side, standing where the [illegible] Hotel [illegible] was the Calvert building. This land was the house in [illegible] by J. R. [illegible], who fought the duel with Thomas Lewis on the lot [illegible] which John [illegible], who fought the duel with Thomas Lewis on the lot [illegible] May, 1808, [illegible]. In the same building J. R. [illegible] kept a store for several months.

II.

On the corner, known as the Hans house, where the daughters of the late Charles D. Gardner now reside, was the old homestead of Capt. David Page. [illegible] was a [illegible] of this house - part of which was among the earliest in the town remains. And nothing is left to remind one of the place as it was.

and milk, products of the soil and a cow was a real luxury. The Shawnees, Mingoes and Delawares were the Indians that mostly troubled us no matter who ever else was chief among them, no greater name has been handed down than that of Cornstalk. Sorry we are that we have not also his picture. The houses were cabins, at first of logs unhewn, puncheon floors and clap board roof, but the better order of building was the double room house with a large chimney of stone between stones enough to enclose a good size yard. The structures were still standing and in use in the recollection of many still living. The old Barnett house, at Big Spring and these of Col. Hugh Crockett, James Craig, Jas. Charlton and many others for example.

I now mention a few of the names of the earliest, most prominent settlers as they occur to me, in the old bounds, out side of the present limits of Montgomer-, in Giles: Price, Taylor, Williams, Lybrook, Conleys, Snyder, Chapman, French, Miller, Browns, Johnson, Hale, Adair, Lucas, Shannon, Bane, Carr, etc. To the descendants of these we must refer to complete the list, and to furnish what ever is worthy of note, and to do this the writer invites them. Pulaski had Hogs, Howe, Miller, Morehead, Cloyd, Caddell, Vermillion, Sayers, Graham, Currin's, Gutheries, etc. Floyd had Howard's, Shelor's, Phlegar's, Goodson, Conor, West, Webb's, Booth, Lester's, Duncan, Cox's, etc. Roanoke had Wood's, McConkley's, Sessler's, Painter's, White's, Johnson's, etc. It is with in the power of many of these descendants of these by means of original patents, or otherwise, to fix or very nearly determine the dates of settlement of their land. I conclude this number with the remark "the very uncertainity that rests upon many things in the early history of any people, is the field in which the imagination may reveal at will, where in the dim haze of obscurity, amid the wild, the wierd-like, the romantic fancy finds no limit to her power, but all is unsubstantial as shadows itself. The plain facts themselves alone are worth. These alone feel and satisfy the mind."

XII.

I proceed to give you some of the names of the old time citizens of the county who remember, and who were descendants (sons or grandsons) of the original settlers. On the South Fork of the Roanoke, Walter, Hugh and Robert Crockett; Joseph, Thomas and Robert Barnett, descendants of Jos. Barnett, a very early settler; also Col. James Barnett, Dacid Barnett, sc, with their descendants Dr. Chas., Col, David, James, Johm and Samuel Sc.; another branch, of this very numerous and highly respected family. Asa, Jesse and Johathan Hall, a very early family. Sowder, Willis, Peppers, Thomas', and Deverle&s, Williams', Thomas and Roland Madison. Col. Andrew Lewis, James and John Harrison all very early settlers and none of their name's now in the county. I remember Col. Lewis distinctly. Lastly Col. Jos. and John Kent, a very large and influential family, whose grand ancester, Jacob must rank among the very first who settled in Montgomery. On North Fork of the Roanoke-Wattersons, Stephens, Shanklins, Evans, Bryans, Robinsons, Earhearts, Rutledges, Hendersons, Browns, Eakins, Vanlears, Johns, Sc. Where Capt. Fagg now lives was the home of old Uncles Johnnie Lucas, (father of Capt. Sam) as merry an old man as I ever knew, and by the way an excellent citizen. On the Blacksburg side were Lewis, Amiss, Linkous, Keister, Barragers, Blacks, Ronalds, Thomas, Petermans, Kipps, Slussers, Robinsons, Ribbles, McDonalds, Prices (a very extensive family), Perrs, Smiths, Sc. On New River, -Peppers, Shells Bingamans, Taylors, Judge Allen, William, Major John, James and Charles, a very early pioneer family and distinguished for talent and worth. The name is fast passing away, however, only and rake, produce of the mill and a cow was a real luxury. The Shawnees, Miamis and Delawares were the Indians that mostly troubled us no matter who else was chief among them, no greater name has been handed down than that of Chartain. Sorry indeed that we have not also his picture. The houses were nothing at first of logs unhewn, puncheon floors and clay board roof, but the better order of building was the double room house with a large chimney of stone between stones enough to enclose a good size yard. The structures were still standing and in use in the recollection of many still living. The old Barnett house, at Big Spring and those of Col. Hugh Brockett, James Craig, Jno. Hamilton and many others for example.

I now mention a few of the names of the earliest, most prominent settlers, as they occur to me, in the old bounds, not all of the present limits of Montgomery. In Giles: Price, Taylor, Williams, Lybrook, Louthers, Snider, Chapman, French, Hatfield, Peters, Johnson, Haley, Smith, Lewis, Thomas, Bane, Carr, etc. To the descendants of these we must refer to complete the list, and to locate what ever is worthy of note, and to do this the entire Indian time. Holland and Hays, Howe, Miller, Harshaw, Cloyd, Caddall, Vermillion, Sayers, Graham, Harris's, Carharting, etc. Floyd and Howard's, Thorne's, Edmonds's, Graham's, Kent, West, Webb's, Scott, Lucas's, Duncan, Cox's, etc. Trents and Snodd's, McGinley's, Buckler's, Painter's, White's, Johnson's, etc. It is with in the power of many of these descendants of these by means of original patents, or otherwise, to fix or very nearly determine the dates of settlement of their land. I conclude this number with the remark "the very uncertainty that rests upon many things in the early history of any people, is the field in which the imagination may revel at will, where in the sea's ways of obscurity, mark the wild, the weird-like, the romantic fancy finds no limit to her power, but all is unsubstantial as shadows lonely, the plain facts themselves alone are worth. These alone feed and satisfy the mind."

XII.

I proceed to give you some of the names of the old time citizens of the county who remember, and who were descendants (sons or grandsons) of the original settlers. On the South Fork of the Roanoke, Whites, Hugh and Robert Caldwell, Joseph, Thomas and Robert Barnett, descendants of Jos. Barnett, a very early settler; also Col. James Barnett, David Barnett, &c, with their descendants Dr. Chas., Col. David, James, John and Samuel Hall; another branch of this very numerous and highly respected family, Geo., Jesse and Johnston Hall, a very early family. Graham, Willis, Peppers, Thomas', and Devericks, Williams', Thomas and Roland Madison, Col. Andrew Lewis, James and John Barnett all very early settlers and none of these name's now in the county. I remember Col. James Charlton, early Col. Jos. and John Kent, a very large and influential family, whose grand ancestor, Jacob Kent came among the very first who settled in Montgomery. On North Fork of the Roanoke-Vaughans, Stephens, Shanklins, Evans, Tripps, Hutchinsons, Barnetts, Holidays, Hundleys, Graves, Robinsons, Pedleys, Johns, &c. Wagon Camp, Tang now lives was the home of old Marlin Lucas Lewis, (father of Capt. Sam) as nearly an old man as I ever knew, and by the way an excellent citizen. On the Blacksburg side were Lewis, Heaths, Lookers, Vetter, Beringers, Black, Ronalds, Thomas, Tracmens, Kipps, Slussers, Robinsons, Kinder, McDonalds, Pattons (a very extensive family), Terry, Snells, &c. On New River, Hoges, Snells Bingham, Taylors, Judge Allen, Wilkins, Major John, James and Charles, a very early pioneer family and distinguished for talent and worth. The hope is fast passing away, however, only our worthy friend Dr. John B. survives. On Crab Creek the old Adam Taylor stock, George, Ulrich and Lewis; Petersons, Hornbarger, Chrisman's, Bowles, (an Irishman among the first settlers), Hawleys, Gardens, Cophers, Sc. Christiansburg and vicinity- Walters, Glenn, Snodgrass, Garners', Charlton, Yearouts, Craig's, Kirbys, Howry, Cliftons, Pages, Pierces, Maj. Russell and Capt. Bill Smith, sons of Thomas who ranked among the early and trust worthy original settlers, Bells, Collins, Sc. On Little River and near Auburn,- Petermans, Akers, Coopers, Bishops, Roops, Whitts, Graysons, Pates, Halls, Smith, Crandalls, Searles, Lesters, Lawrences, Simpkins, Ezekiel, William and Hiram Howard, a family marked for its integrity. On Brush Creek and Pilot- Williams, Gibson, Booth, Iddings, Furrow, Beckelheimer. And not to be too tedious though many names are ommitted I mention in conclusion the names of Col. John Ingles, Sallust, the Havens family, Wall and Elliott's. These names are still among us, but many have idsappeared by removal or otherwise.

There are some names which I have reserved as being worthy of separate notice, I refer to those of Revolutionary memory. Some of these I can remember as Pensioners, but most of them had passed away before my time. The first I mention is Col. Hugh Crockett, whose residence was where Dr. Isaac White's family now live. Samuel Fleming, Major Lorton, Major Goodson, Capt. Elliott, Ezekial Howard, Thomas Miles, John Emmans, John Teany, Thos, Turner, Francis Charlton, Daniel Miller, Elijah and Ichabod Meacham, and last but not least, our friend Bouldin Rogers, Uncle Bouldin was a great favorite among the boys of that day and when he came to town on Saturdays or on Court days we would flock around to hear him talk about the war of '76 in which he participated from beginning to end. Like the Trojan Aeneas, Bouldin could say of the Revolutionary war, "Quoram magna pars firo". He was with Gen. Washington on the Jerseys and at Valley Forge in the winter, and when Green superceeded Gates marched south according to orders, and followed his standard through "think and thin" and knew something about what it was to be a soldier in the times that tried men's souls- Commanders in Chief knew that their hopes of success their glory, whatever it be, depends largely upon the calor and fidelity of the true soldier and with such soldiers are heroes. When a boy I remember well the expression "Heores of '76." Old Uncle Bouldin was every inch a soldier, a man of mark among men- frank, courageous, brave, generous, of cheery spirits, cast into the mould fitted to endure to stand to the bitter end.

It was amusing to hear him tell how when captured once, the enemy held him a prisoner for six months in the hold of a ship in Charleston Harbor.

INCIDENTS OF BORDER LIFE IN VIRGINIA

Related by Mrs. Letitia Floyd in a letter to her son, Colonel Benjamin Rush Floyd. (From the Richmond Standard, June 5, 1880, p 4; June 19, 1880, p 4; June 26, 1880, pp 1 and 4; July 3, 1880, pp 1 and 4.)

We are indepted to the kind attention of Professor George Frederick Holmes, LL.D., of the University of Virginia, for the following valuable, graphic, and highly interesting narrative: 1/

"Burke's Garden, February 22, 1843.

"My Dear Rush, - From the extreme rigor of the winter and my diminshed vigor I have postponed answering your letter of December 30 enclosing one from roof. General Stoneman made this his Federal headquarters when his army captured Christiansburg and encamped for so long within the town.

The old Methodist Church constructed in 1825 was torn down on May 13, 1856, and the new Methodist Church which stands on Franklin Street without its steeple was first occupied on July 25, 1856. Drawings of both of these churches were made by Mr. Lewis Miller and this information is obtained from them. Mr. Miller was a famous artist and poet in the early days of Christiansburg and he has saved by his drawings, many valuable prints of the old town which are now in possession of Mrs. Eva Rosseau. On Main Street still stands the Snider residence, now transformed into a store, which many old citizens claim is the house of Davy Crockett where he learned the hatters' trade before emigrating into Texas to die as that state's greatest hero in the Alamo.

Christiansburg, in its early days, was the scene of many fatal duels, the last of which, between John McHenry and Thomas Lewis the first Monday in May, 1808, resulted in the death of both of these distinguished men and caused a reaction against this mode of settling quarrels which successfully ended all but a few dignified exchanges of shots without harm to the participants. I have seen somewhere a long article of the duels fought in Christiansburg but all but this one are passed out of my recollection.

The first two Courthouses of Christiansburg stood in the center of the Square facing toward the west. The first of these buildings was of log construction and the dimensions of the building and its jail and the specifications of its construction are of record in the Courthouse. The second building was of brick, built by the Davises and only stood about forty years when it was purchased and town down by Robert Gardner in 1833, and a large structure erected on the south side of Main Street on the Square which stood until 1909 when it was succeeded by the present building. The first county clerk's office stood on the highway near Hans Meadows the home of James Craig, now owned by his decendent, Miss Sherwood Flagg. The original building some years ago was moved from its site and occupied as a dwelling on the Craig lands. Miss Flagg has offered the building and the site for it to the patriotic societies of Montgomery County to reconstruct it as a historical memorial to the early settlers of the county. At the time the first brick courthouse was built a stone dungeon was constructed for the care of prisoners on the county property on Franklin Street and a small two story dwelling was erected for the jailer. The jailer's house was afterwards moved to the lot of Squire James T. Miller and stood until recently between the homes of William S. Aaron and Childress Hall. Upon construction of the new courthouse in 1834 a large and commodious jail for prisoners and a residence for the jailer was constructed behind the courthouse adjacent to Franklin Street showing a considerable change in regard to prisoners.

During the time of the first brick courthouse the clerk's office was located in a one-story frame building on Franklin Street, the present site of the Phlegar building. In later years this building was used as a law office by Major Taylor, Judges Waller R. Staples, Archer A. Phlegar, George G. Junkin, Walter M. Pierce, and other distinguished lawyers. The first clerk whose name appears of record as serving the court was Deputy Clerk Will Littlepage who apparently served from September, 1777, until James McCorkle was made clerk by the court on December 1, 1778. He served until January 25, 1785, when Abram Trigg was appointed clerk. Trigg took the oath of office on February 22, 1785, and was succeeded by Charles Taylor and his deputy, Barbee Miller; Taylor was made clerk on September 4, 1792, and Miller was made his deputy on January 9, 1817. both serving until Rice D. Montague qualified as clerk at the August court in 1821. Mr. Montague served as clerk of all courts of the county until 1858. the longest period ever served by any clerk. James M. Wade's name first appears as his deputy in acknowledging a deed from Mr. Montague and others on the 8th day of January, 1853, and he served as deputy from that time until he was elected and qualified on July 1, 1858.

James M. Wade served as clerk continuously from 1858 to his death in [illegible], with John C. Wade as his deputy, covering both courts. Charles I. Wade served as an additional deputy for his father during the latter part of his term, and filled his unexpired term from 1873 to June 30, 1875, with John C. Wade, his deputy. Both these men, James M. and John C. Wade, served during the entire period of the War Between the States although they both served as officers in the Confederate Army, while Eli W. Scott, W. M. Barnitz and James W. Shields served as deputies and actually did the work during that period.

Harless his deputy, both serving until July 1, 1899, with W. L. Currin was elected county clerk and H. D. Wade was elected county clerk of the circuit court with George Wilson his deputy. On February 1, 1904, under the new ordinances of the Constitutional Convention he became clerk of the circuit court and county clerk and the county court was abolished. He proceeded to appoint H. D. Wade and George W. Wilson as deputy county clerks. George W. Wilson was elected on November 7, 1905 and commenced his term on January 1, 1906. Judge Moomaw was appointed judge of this court on September 30, 1905, to fill the unexpired term of Judge Henry E. Blair, ending February 1, 1908. He resigned and Judge Moffett was appointed on the 26th day of January, 1906. His deputies were W. F. Walters and R. H. Willard, the latter still serving.

Mr. Wilson died on February 5, 1918, and Archer P. Johnson was appointed clerk to fill the unexpired term on the 6th day of February, 1918, and served until his death on April 26, 1931, and T. S. James M. Wade served as clerk continuously from 1838 to his death with John C. Wade as his deputy, covering both courts. Charles E. Wade served as an additional deputy for his father during the latter part of his term and filled the unexpired term from 1871 to June 30, 1873, with John C. Wade as deputy. Both these men, James M. and John C. Wade, served during the early part of the War Between the States, although they both served as officers in the Confederate Army, while Ellis W. Scott, W. M. Wright and James M. Chism served as deputies and actually did the work during that period.

John R. Bohanon was elected and served as clerk from July 1, 1873, until July 1, 1881. Charles E. Wade was elected Clerk of the Circuit Court and served as such until 1887. John C. Wade was elected and served as clerk of the county court from July 1, 1881, until July 1, 1887, he and Charles E. Dear Meacham/Mitchem Cousins...

I am using the lazy way to write a cover letter to each of you as I send copies of my research material. I did not copy much of the source records, as many were made from microfilm and my copies are not good. If you want any of those records listed on the source sheet, let me know and I will make the best copy available.

The wonderful picture enclosed of William Harrison Mitchem came to me from Darlene Mrvich. William was critically injured at the Battle of Shiloh (Civil War) and had poor health for the rest of his life (per my Mother).

Did Jedediah and Hannah Smith Meacham/Mitchem really have all of the children I suggest??? I took the names from marriage records of Tazewell Co. VA. Since only Jed and Hannah lived there from 1820-1850, those must be their children. Help me with this one.

I have many of the grandchildren of Elijah and Sarah Meacham, but still reading census records. I have finished 1880 (wish we had the 1890) and will go on to 1900-1910-1920. When I get those done, will send additional information, but it will take some time.

I did not copy much for James R. Meacham (son of Elijah). Jim of Jackson, OH will probably follow up on him.

To help those new to the research group:

Cheryl Chester and Sue Swain (from Jedediah and Hannah)
James Meacham (from James R. and Lucinda)
Norma Karter, Darlene Mrvich and Mary Nunneley (from William and Catherine)

After you read the enclosed material, PLEASE, send me any corrections. I feel sure that, after 30 years on this family, I probably made mistakes. Would really appreciate your input.

Looking very forward to receiving the pictures of the Bible records found by Cheryl in Montgomery Co. VA last July. I am excited over her big find.

Look forward to hearing from all -

A comment on the marriage of Elijah D. Meacham, Sr., to Elizabeth Smith

The following books have listed a marriage for Elijah D. Mitchem to Elizabeth Smith on 9 Nov 1782 in Montgomery Co. VA and a marriage for William Mitchem to Catherine Wertz on 1 Feb 1830 in Montgomery Co. VA. The books:

A Brief of wills and marriages in Montgomery and Fincastle counties Virginia 1733-1831 (by) Anne Lowry Worrel, published 1932 and reprinted in 1976 and 1979 by Gen. Pub. Co., Baltimore AND "Marriages in the New River Valley (by) Therese A. Fisher, c1991, published by Heritage Books, Inc., Bowie, MD....ARE IN ERROR!

Elizabeth Smith m Lawrence Murray on 9 Nov 1782 by Simon Cockrell (the same minister listed for Elijah and Elizabeth on the same date).

William Mitchem married Catherine Werts (not Wertz as shown in both books) not on 1 Feb 1830, but on 26 Jul 1827. I have a certified copy of their marriage from the County Clerk's office and also, have a Xerox copy of the actual page from the marriage record book showing the marriage.

I do not believe that Elijah D. Meacham WAS in Virginia in Nov. 1782, so could not have married Elizabeth Smith. His Revolutionary War pension paper in 1818 stated that he was discharged from service in June 1783 and that he had lived in Montgomery Co. VA for 26 years. Thus, he moved to Montgomery Co. VA about 1792. Elijah's oldest son, Ziba, stated on the 1850 census (Bracken Co. KY) that he was born in Massachusetts. It seems unlikely that Elijah would journey to VA in 1782 to marry Elizabeth Smith, hurry to West Point, NY to be discharged from the service in 1783 and then move to Montgomery Co. VA in 1792.

Received the good material yesterday, THANKS, and have the following info to update what you sent.......it will be a long e-mail.

Adams Salisbury Cemetery

*Deborah Osborne (1848-1929)
She is Deborah Ellen Rickey, wife of Oscar D. Osborne. Her parents are John G. Rickey and Mary Wells

*Martha Snyder (1837-1910)
She is Martha Rickey, wife of Judah/Julian Snyder. Her parents are John G. Rickey and Mary Wells.
Martha is the mother of Ellen Snyder Lauderback Frazier, wife #2 of Jacob Wesley Frazier who married #1 Sarah Jane Mitchem.

*Elizabeth R. Brown (1861-1952)
She is Elizabeth R. Snyder who married a Brown. Her parents are Judah/Julian Snyder and Martha Rickey.
Elizabeth is surely the sister of Ellen Snyder Frazier......in the obit of Ellen Frazier, one of her surviving sisters listed as Mrs. E. Brown of Stockdale.

*Nancy Butcher (d 1858)
Did not find a marriage in Pike Co. for Nancy to Adam J. Butcher......but.......Records on Butcher burials at the Beaver Union Cemetery, Pike Co...Jim Meacham to Mary Nunneley on 3 Dec 2000 lists the following:
Adam J. Butcher, born 1826 Pike Co. - died 6 Apr 1898
married #1 Nancy Adams 13 Mar 1851 (Pike Co. ?)
married #2 Lydia Ann McCray 11 Aug 1859 in Jackson Co. OH

New Holland Cemetery

*Kahler/Mitchem burials
Unable to place at this time. The "not found" grave of Roy Mitchem is probably Lee Roy Mitchem, born April 1881, son of Elijah and Amanda Jane Bennett Mitchem. These Kahler/Mitchem people may belong to him.

Madison Mills Cemetery

*Lucinda Blake (d 1891) wife of J. Blake
We know she was Lucinda Mitchem, dau of William and Catherine Wirt Mitchem/Meacham. GOOD PICTURE
I bet Joseph Blake is also buried in Madison Mills, without a stone.....He died after 1900 (on that census in Madison Twp).

* From - Tombstone Inscriptions of Madison Twp (pub by the Fayette Co. Gen. Soc in 1999) the following:
John H. Baughn d 25 July 1875 (has GAR marker)
He married Malinda Mitchem, dau of William and Catherine Wirt Mitchem/Meacham
William M. Baughn d 1 Dec 1878 - age 18y 3m 29d - son of J. H. and M. Baughn
He was William Moses Baughn, son of John H. and Malinda Mitchem Baughn
Rosa C. Sollars d 12 Nov 1885 - age 20y 5m 7d - wife of W. F. Sollars
She was Rosilla Catherine Baughn, dau of John H. and Malinda Mitchem Baughn
Callie R. Sollars d 2 Dec 1885 - age 1m 6d - Callie was the dau of W. Frank Sollars and Rosa C. Baughn and granddaughter of John H. and Malinda Mitchem Baughn.
I have no idea when Malinda Mitchem Baughn died, but she was on the 1880 census, Madison Twp and two of Joseph and Lucinda Mitchem Blake's sons were living in her household. Another of the children of John and Malinda Mitchem Baughn, Sarah Elton Baughn (1856-1894) married Joseph S. Baldwin and they are buried in the Baldwin Cemetery which straddles the Fayette Co. and Madison Co. line (most of it in Madison Co.) west of U.S. 62 and S.R. 3. SO...Malinda could be buried in Baldwin Cemetery or in Madison Mills with her husband, John H. Baughn.

I need to try to find out if Madison Mills Cemetery has a sexton who might have the records. The cemetery is still being used, and someone must have a records of the plot owners and burials.

Now to the Mongold/Mungold bunch. I have not had time to really think this over. At www.familysearch.org (the LDS site) there is much MIS-information concerning the Jackson Co. OH Mongolds. One Meacham, Mary Ann who was born on 27 Jan 1815 in VA and married Jonathon Jacob Mongold on 12 Mar 1840 in Pulaski Co. VA is listed as the dau of James R. Meachum and Lucinda (?maiden) Meachum.......old James R. would have been 14 years old at her birth.......pretty bad research on someone's part. Will do more on the Mongolds in a short time.

Hope your computer accepts such a long letter ! !

Got the package today and have spent some time looking at the items. Will comment on the following:

Material of Bertlyn Crouse Johnston of Ames, Iowa

I cannot figure out how she connects to Ichabod Meacham. Her "Mary" on the last page has no birthdate and haven't a clue where she fits.

Material of Bob Huggins of Columbus, Ohio

Bob is our kin, no doubt. In an e-mail from me to you dated 14 May 2000, I asked you who was "Elizabeth Meacham" living in Jackson Co. OH in 1870. Will send you that census again.

1870 Census - Jackson Co. OH - Lick Twp. - Page 140 - PO, Jackson C. H.

Elizabeth Meacham	30	WF	domestic servant		W VA
George G. Meacham	4	WM	at home		OHIO
David S. Meacham	6/12	WM	at home (born Dec 1869)		OHIO

Emeline Meacham (daughter of Simeon and Priscilla Meacham) born - 3 Aug 1842 - Montgomery Co. VA died - 8 Apr 1924 - Belmont Co. OH
Married #1 - Levi Hickman on 5 Jan 1860 in Tazewell Co. VA
#2 - Franklin Clark - date and location of marriage unknown
#3 - John Marker on 3 Sep 1868 in Jackson Co. OH
The marriage license was issued to John Marker and Emeline Hickman, so did she really marry #2 Franklin Clark?

There certainly must be a relationship between Emeline Meacham (dau of Simeon and granddaughter of Elijah) to the Elizabeth Meacham living in her household in 1870. I have tried and tried to figure out this Elizabeth, without any luck so far. But,
I think you can inform Bob Huggins that without a doubt there is a family tie between his Elizabeth Meacham and Elijah/Simeon/Emeline.......but how is unknown as of now. Get Bob to send you all of his info...maybe we can figure out the connection.

Later,
Mary R. M. N.

Yes and as I understand it there were at least two groups of Meachams in Jackson County. Mine lived near Jackson (city) and possibly Coalton. The earliest was one Elizabeth Meacham who may or may not have been married to a Sam Meacham. The only clue I have to his existance is on her son George's death certificate. He or someone was around the area at least three times as Elizabeth had three sons. George was born in 1866 and died in 1937. He was my G Grandfather . David and Harry were born in 1870 and 1873 respectively and I know nothing about them. Elizabeth according to census records was born in 1840 in Va. I have not found any record of her death. George married a Milissa Scott and had at least seven children among them my grandmother Lillian. Hopefully this will be of some help. if you need more detail I will provide what I have.

Mary--

I am still trying to get a note written to you, but have not had time. I WILL!!!!!

I received this today. Does this strike you? I seem to remember a Harry, but he was buried over east in Fayette County in the 1950's.

Would you please give it some thought?

Most likely he is related to Horace. Some of his family did move to Chillicothe(some still there in Pleasant Valley just west of town).

Thanks..............Jim

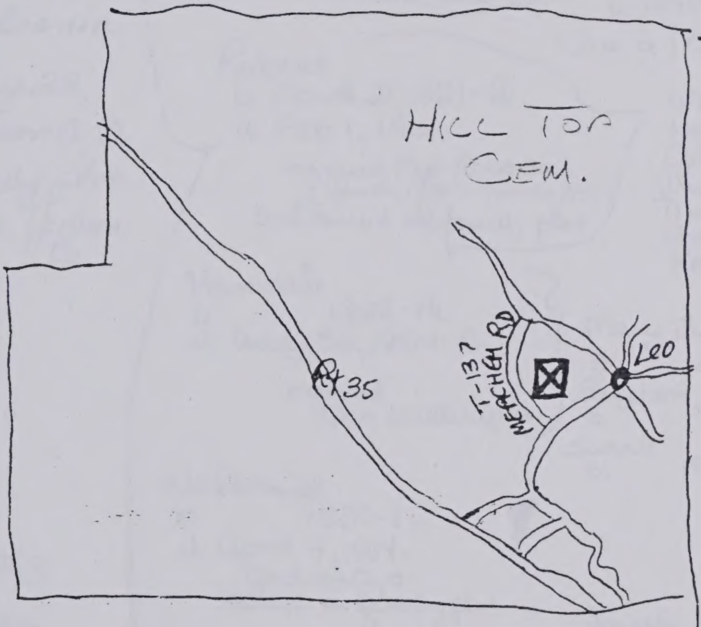
how you could have missed them.

The other omission in your book, which is quite detailed even to family plots, is the omission of the Swaney family plot. It contains several graves & is located in a portion of the old family property known as "Tick Ridge". Its location in the County is roughly as diagramed:



listed as 80 acres, Sec. 23, purchased by John Sway from Jonathan Hill on April 12, 1849. Deed in Vol K, pg 6 of Co. deed bo

If you do do any addendum to your book on this graveyard, I would appreciate a copy.

I am sending you a family tree as I know it. I understand there are still branches of the family all over the area so I am hoping you can locate some that will give me further insigh into the family. The first Swaneys came to Ohio & Jackso C. sometime in the mid 1800's. Older members of the family say John & Osea and their children & belongings floated down the Ohio River on a flatboat from Pittsburg Pa to the place in Ohio where the town of Pomeroy now

As you can see, I have extensive family istories done. Also have 1850's county voting records for these people, etc. I assume Meachem Rd. next to their property was named after John & Osea's son-in-law Horace, who was named supervisor of roads in 1855. Other county offcs. held by family: Robt Swaney - road spvr 1856 & 1860; Thos Swaney - trustee 1854, 1857, 1859 - 1862; Alfred McKee - road spvr 1856, constable 1860.

Any other info you can find out, I would really appreciate. And you or anyone can use all this for any future histories.

Thanks a bunch And good luck.

Thanks!!! Also let me know if I owe you anything for getting those records!

BTW - there are about 100+ Fraziers and Fraziers decendents in the Marion

Dear Cousins, Nieces, Brother and Kids:

I have more family history news! Please pass this on to other family members that might be interested. I still don't have everyone's e mail address. Send me other email addresses if you have them.

A couple of other cousins, Mary Nunneley and Kim Jones (both from the Mitchem line) and myself have been working to locate more information about Jacob Wesley Frazier/Frasier and his brother John Elyis Frasier and their families.

Jacob Wesley Frazier married Sarah Jane Mitchem. John Elyis Frazier/Frasier married Mary Mitchem Frasier. John and Mary Frasier were my great-grandfather and great-grandmother. The Frasier/Frazier brothers were married to the Mitchem sisters in Fayette County, Ohio. Both families moved to Bethany, Harrison County, Missouri. After the Civil War the John E. Frazier/Frasier family moved to Cherokee County, Kansas (Documentation: Census records and family letters). The Jacob W. Frazier/Frasier family moved to Scioto County, Madison Township, Ohio sometime between 1880 and 1900 (Documentation: census records)(the date is not pinned down yet).

Both John and Jacob joined the Civil War effort with the Union Army in Missouri. John Elyis joined as a Fourth Corporal in Company E of the 43rd Regiment of the Infantry Missouri Volunteers in 1864 (Documentation is his Enlistment Papers). His Principal Commander was: Col. Chester Harding [US]. He was wounded in the shoulder and hand at Glasgow, Missouri on October 15, 1864, and was treated in a Rebel hospital in Boonville, Missouri as a prisoner of war. He went from Boonville to St. Louis and then got a furlough and went home. After being discharged at Benton Barracks, Missouri on June 30, 1865, he returned to Harrison County, Missouri for a time.

Glasgow
Other Names: None

Location: Howard County

Campaign: Price's Missouri Expedition (1864)

Date(s): October 15, 1864

Principal Commanders: Col. Chester Harding [US]; Brig. Gen. John B. Clark and Brig. Gen. Joe Shelby [CS]

Forces Engaged: Garrison (800) [US]; unknown [CS]

Estimated Casualties: 450 total (US 400; CS 50)

Description: While Maj. Gen. Sterling Price led his men westward across Missouri, he decided to send a detachment to Glasgow to liberate weapons and supplies in an arms storehouse, purported to be there. This combined mounted infantry, cavalry, and artillery force laid siege to the town and the fortifications on Hereford Hill. Before dawn on October 15, Confederate artillery opened on the town and Rebels advanced on Glasgow by various routes, forcing the Yankees to fall back. The Union forces retreated out of town and up the hill toward the fortifications on Hereford Hill. There they formed a defensive line in this area, but the Confederates continued to advance. Convinced that he could not defend against another Confederate attack, Col. Chester Harding surrendered around 1:30 pm. Although Harding destroyed some Federal stores, Price's men found rifle-muskets, overcoats, and horses. The Confederates remained in town for three days before rejoining the main column with new supplies and weapons and marching on towards Kansas City. The victory and capture of supplies and weapons were a boost to Price's army's morale.

Result(s): Confederate victory

General Price remained at Boonville three days, and then left to avoid being hemmed in between the LaMine and the Missouri rivers. The immediate cause of his leaving appeared to be that a heavy body of Federal cavalry got possession of the Tipton road, and were with difficulty dislodged for the passage of the troops. At Salt Fork, in Saline county, General Clark and his brigade of Marmaduke's division, reinforced by Colonel Jackman's brigade of Shelby's division, were detached in order to cross the river at Arrow Rock and capture the garrison at Glasgow, six or seven hundred strong, under command of Col. Chester Harding. The troops crossed on a steam ferryboat, and the boat was then run up to near Glasgow to be ready to recross them at that point after they had taken the town and captured the garrison. The Federals occupied a heavy earthwork and were in a position to have made a strong fight if they had been properly commanded. But Colonel Harding did not seem anxious to do more than make a show of resistance. That done, surrender followed as a matter of course. Jackman's brigade, which got in position before Clark's did, drove the enemy into their works without difficulty; and then, through the agency of the principal citizens of the town, came negotiations for surrender, which were soon consummated, apparently to the satisfaction of all the parties concerned. Shelby moved up on the opposite <cmh9b_185>side of the river, just before daylight, with a section of artillery, and before Clark had opened the fight disabled a steamboat loaded with clothing and army stores, and kept her under his guns until Harding surrendered. '

Jacob Wesley joined Company I, 1st Missouri State Militia Calvery (Documentation Government Cemetery Head Stone in Adams Cemetery). We assume that Jacob joined within the same year, 1864, but we do not have that documentation yet.

Received the good material yesterday, THANKS, and have the following info to update what you sent.......it will be a long e-mail.

Adams Salisbury Cemetery
- *Deborah Osborne (1848-1929)
  She is Deborah Ellen Rickey, wife of Oscar D. Osborne. Her parents are John G. Rickey and Mary Wells
- *Martha Snyder (1837-1910)
  She is Martha Rickey, wife of Judah/Julian Snyder. Her parents are John G. Rickey and Mary Wells.
  Martha is the mother of Ellen Snyder Lauderback Frazier, wife #2 of Jacob Wesley Frazier who married #1 Sarah Jane Mitchem.
- *Elizabeth R. Brown (1861-1952)
  She is Elizabeth R. Snyder who married a Brown. Her parents are Judah/Julian Snyder and Martha Rickey.
  Elizabeth is surely the sister of Ellen Snyder Frazier......in the obit of Ellen Frazier, one of her surviving sisters listed as Mrs. E. Brown of Stockdale.
- *Nancy Butcher (d 1858)
  Did not find a marriage in Pike Co. for Nancy to Adam J. Butcher......but.......Records on Butcher burials at the Beaver Union Cemetery, Pike Co...Jim Meacham to Mary Nunneley on 3 Dec 2000 lists the following:
  Adam J. Butcher, born 1826 Pike Co. - died 6 Apr 1898
  married #1 Nancy Adams 13 Mar 1851 (Pike Co. ?)
  married #2 Lydia Ann McCray 11 Aug 1859 in Jackson Co. OH

New Holland Cemetery
- *Kahler/Mitchem burials
  Unable to place at this time. The "not found" grave of Roy Mitchem is probably Lee Roy Mitchem, born April 1881, son of Elijah and Amanda Jane Bennett Mitchem. These Kahler/Mitchem people may belong to him.

Madison Mills Cemetery
- *Lucinda Blake (d 1891) wife of J. Blake
  We know she was Lucinda Mitchem, dau of William and Catherine Wirt Mitchem/Meacham. GOOD PICTURE
  I bet Joseph Blake is also buried in Madison Mills, without a stone.....He died after 1900 (on that census in Madison Twp).
- * From - Tombstone Inscriptions of Madison Twp (pub by the Fayette Co. Gen. Soc in 1999) the following:
  John H. Baughn d 25 July 1875 (has GAR marker)
    He married Malinda Mitchem, dau of William and Catherine Wirt Mitchem/Meacham
  William M. Baughn d 1 Dec 1878 - age 18y 3m 29d - son of J. H. and M. Baughn
    He was William Moses Baughn, son of John H. and Malinda Mitchem Baughn
  Rosa C. Sollars d 12 Nov 1885 - age 20y 5m 7d - wife of W. F. Sollars
    She was Rosilla Catherine Baughn, dau of John H. and Malinda Mitchem Baughn
  Callie R. Sollars d 2 Dec 1885 - age 1m 6d - Callie was the dau of W. Frank Sollars and Rosa C. Baughn and granddaughter of John H. and Malinda Mitchem Baughn.
  I have no idea when Malinda Mitchem Baughn died, but she was on the 1880 census, Madison Twp and two of Joseph and Lucinda Mitchem Blake's sons were living in her household. Another of the children of John and Malinda Mitchem Baughn, Sarah Elton Baughn (1856-1894) married Joseph S. Baldwin and they are buried in the Baldwin Cemetery which straddles the Fayette Co. and Madison Co. line (most of it in Madison Co.) west of U.S. 62 and S.R. 3. SO...Malinda could be buried in Baldwin Cemetery or in Madison Mills with her husband, John H. Baughn.

I need to try to find out if Madison Mills Cemetery has a sexton who might have the records. The cemetery is still being used, and someone must have a records of the plot owners and burials.

Now to the Mongold/Mungold bunch. I have not had time to really think this over. At www.familysearch.org (the LDS site) there is much MIS-information concerning the Jackson Co. OH Mongolds. One Meacham, Mary Ann who was born on 27 Jan 1815 in VA and married Jonathon Jacob Mongold on 12 Mar 1840 in Pulaski Co. VA is listed as the dau of James R. Meachum and Lucinda (?maiden) Meachum.......old James R. would have been 14 years old at her birth.......pretty bad research on someone's part. Will do more on the Mongolds in a short time.

Hope your computer accepts such a long letter ! !

I have not copied the records as yet, but will do so when I have time and will send the marriage records to you both. Some of the Fraziers do not seem to belong, but think you need to retain the info. It may "connect" at some point.
Yesterday, I mailed the birth and death records to both of you.
Dodi.....you wanted to know how much I would charge for the birth/death copies. I never charge a thing for sharing. After 30 years of doing genealogy, I probably still owe many people lots of money for items they have shared. Sharing is genealogy.

Mary:

Here is the obit that Alice Lauderback sent me a few months ago.
It says that five of her children were dead before she died.

That would be:

Ignatius Robert (Nash) Frazier died 1918.
George Washington Frazier died 1931.
and possibly---
DeMoine Frazier before 1910
Harrison Frazier before 1910
Wayne Frazier before 1910

but these all look like boys and it says in the obit that one daughter preceded her in death out of the five children also??? Go figure.

First - the obit stands as is.........I transcribed it as written. I suspect that it was written by Maggie, since she is the one who gave info to the funeral home and for his death certificate, as follows:

Ohio certificate of death # 11617
Scioto Co OH - Madison Twp - Registration District #5775
Jacob Wesley Frazier
white male - married
date of death - 24 Feb 1924
date of birth - 10 Feb 1828
age 96 years and 14 days farmer
name of father XXXXX - born old Virginia name of mother XXXXX - born old Virginia
burial - Adams graveyard
undertaker - Omer Davis date of burial - Feb 26, 1924 cause of death - acute sepsis with epithelioma (??) of lower lip doctor - E. W. Todd, M.D.
duration of illness - two years
Dr. Todd attended the deceased from 3 Jan 1924 to 24 Feb 1924 died at 9 PM
information for death certificate given by Maggie Rickey of Portsmouth, Ohio
ALBERT FRAZIER

I have suspected that Albert was a son because he was born in Missouri.
SO - since he married Sarah J. Frazier (dau of Andrew and Esther - proven) he married his first cousin. I have found no children of this marriage

Jacob's Civil War service -
The obit may be wrong or he may have served in both the cavalry and an artillery unit.
Mrs. Oura Browning...........not a clue who she is, but will try to find something.

World War I - yes, it was Ignatius who was killed. His stone government stone reads:

  Ignatious R. Frazier
  OHIO
  PVT 102 INF
  26 DIV
  October 25 1918
Harrison, DeMoine, Wayne...........
  Do you have the 1920 census for Jacob and Ellen? I do not. Maybe some of the questions will be answered by that census.
Children of Jacob and Ellen -
  I, also, only have seven children's names for their marriage........again,
maybe the 1920 census would help.

I have a bunch of stuff I need to copy for you......it will answer some of your questions. Just have not gotten to a place to get it copied.
Also,
have several pictures of tombstones and pictures of the Adam Butcher/Elizabeth Mitchem family.
Oh yes, the G.A.R. is - Grand Army of the Republic. It was an organization for veterans of Union Civil War service. It was extremely active, both politically and in civic affairs in most communities in the early 1900s
- and in fact, until most of the old soldiers died. My great-grandfather in Oswego, KS was very active in GAR. I suspect that William Harrison Mitchem
may have been a member, because in his obit it mentioned his old comrades were invited to the funeral. I have seen such an invitation in several obits
for Civil War soldiers who were GAR members.
Hope this answered your questions and as I said, the obit should stand alone without any changes. The needed changes must be proven (and I think there are definitely some errors).

Mary and Kim:

I would have not looked in Warren County first either, but with the Soundex system you don't look at the county first, you look at the whole state and that refers you to the county census.

Look at the dates that the three boys and Jacob W. got married:

More About JOHN FRAZIER and MARY L.:
Marriage: 1884, Ohio

More About JAMES FRAZIER and MARY:
Marriage: 1886, Ohio

More About JACOB W. FRASIER and TRIPHENA ELLEN SNYDER LAUDERBACK:
Marriage: 1888, Ohio

More About ADAM FRAZIER and ALICE M.:
Marriage: 1890, Ohio

All these men married woman from Ohio, so their marriages must have taken place back in Ohio after they moved to that state from Missouri. Could this mean that Sarah Jane Mitchem Frazier died in 1880 in Missouri when Margaret Maggie Frazier was born? I know that she, Sarah, was alive during the June 1880 census in Missouri, but Maggie was not listed in that census because she had not been born yet. Maggie was born in Aug of 1880.

I wish I had the 1890 Ohio census because I'll bet I could find the Frazier family in Warren County at that time. Jacob W. should be their with at least his children Mary Jane, Jacob W. Jr., and Maggie.

(By the way Jacob changed the way he was spelling his name in the 1900 and the 1910 census to Frasier.)

I could not find Henry W., Alfred or William Frazier in either the 1900 or the 1910 Ohio census so they must have stayed in Missouri with their families.

Enough for now. Talk to you later.

Descendants of Jacob Wesley Frazier

Generation No. 1

1. JACOB WESLEY3 FRAZIER (JOHN H.2, JOHN1) was born February 1838 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and died Aft. 1910 in Ohio. He married (1) SARAH JANE MITCHEM, daughter of WILLIAM MEACHAM and CATHERINE WIRT. She was born 1834 in Montgomery County, Virginia. He married (2) TRIPHENA ELLEN SNYDER LAUDERBACK 1888 in Ohio, daughter of JUDAH SNYDER and MARTHA RICKEY. She was born March 09, 1859 in Ohio, and died December 05, 1934 in Long Run Home, Ohio.

Notes for JACOB WESLEY FRAZIER:
Jacob Wesley Frazier and Sarah Mitchem Frazier lived in Cypress Township in the county of Harrison, state of Missouri on the 22nd day of June 1870. Their post office was Bethany, Missouri. It states that Jacob could write, but couldn't read. Sarah could read and write. On June 5th of 1880 they still lived in Cypress Township.

Kim's material to me stops with Jacob Frazier, b 1879 - Missouri. She suggests in what she sent to me that there (family tradition) were two possible additional brothers, Loren and Charles.
As we now know from the Beaver Funeral Home records, Jacob Wesley Frazier, son of Jacob Frazier and Sarah Jane Mitchem born - 4 Apr 1878 - MO died - 27 Jul 1936 - Madison Township. Scioto Co. OH (the funeral was ordered by Chas. Frazier and the bill was charged to Loren Frazier) The funeral home records also show another son for Jacob Frazier, Sr. and Ellen (Ella) T. Snyder:

George Washington Frazier
born 22 Feb 1905 - OH
died 9 Nov 1931 - Madison Township. Scioto Co. OH cause of death: Hypothyroidism, myocardial./imbecile
(the funeral was ordered by Mrs. Frank Coles and the bill was charged to Mrs. Ellen Frazier)

Kim's records to me also omit another child shown on the 1870 census:
Harrison Co. MO - Page 60 - 22 Jun 1870 - Post office - Bethany
88-88
Jacob Frazier 28 MW $800/200 VA
Sarah 25 FW Keep house VA
Henry W. 8 MW MO
Alfred 6 MW MO
WM 4 MW MO
Adam 2 MW MO
ELNORA 6/12 FW MO

NOTE:
Elnora, per the census, was born in December, 1869. She is not listed on the 1880 census, so apparently died before that census, as she would be age 10 or 11.

I still think I need to order the Scioto Co. censuses for 1900/10/20 to see if I can find any of the family of Jacob Frazier and his second wife, Ellen (Ella) Snyder. Did Kim give you any census records or proofs of the children she named?? I have hopes that the five volumes of Beaver Funeral Home records that I have ordered from the Pike Co. (OH) Genealogical Society will be helpful in finding additional info on this bunch of Fraziers.
Since they lived in Madison Township, Scioto Co. OH and Beaver (Pike Co) is nearby, I can see why a funeral home there was used. Madison Township is the most northeast TWP in Scioto Co. and borders Pike Co.
Bet we get this settled, one way or another..............

Received the good material yesterday, THANKS, and have the following info to update what you sent.......it will be a long e-mail.

Adams Salisbury Cemetery

*Deborah Osborne (1848-1929)
She is Deborah Ellen Rickey, wife of Oscar D. Osborne. Her parents are John G. Rickey and Mary Wells

*Martha Snyder (1837-1910)
She is Martha Rickey, wife of Judah/Julian Snyder. Her parents are John G. Rickey and Mary Wells.
Martha is the mother of Ellen Snyder Lauderback Frazier, wife #2 of Jacob Wesley Frazier who married #1 Sarah Jane Mitchem.

*Elizabeth R. Brown (1861-1952)
She is Elizabeth R. Snyder who married a Brown. Her parents are Judah/Julian Snyder and Martha Rickey.
Elizabeth is surely the sister of Ellen Snyder Frazier......in the obit of Ellen Frazier, one of her surviving sisters listed as Mrs. E. Brown of Stockdale.

*Nancy Butcher (d 1858)
Did not find a marriage in Pike Co. for Nancy to Adam J. Butcher......but.......Records on Butcher burials at the Beaver Union Cemetery, Pike Co...Jim Meacham to Mary Nunneley on 3 Dec 2000 lists the following:
Adam J. Butcher, born 1826 Pike Co. - died 6 Apr 1898
married #1 Nancy Adams 13 Mar 1851 (Pike Co. ?)
married #2 Lydia Ann McCray 11 Aug 1859 in Jackson Co. OH

New Holland Cemetery

*Kahler/Mitchem burials
Unable to place at this time. The "not found" grave of Roy Mitchem is probably Lee Roy Mitchem, born April 1881, son of Elijah and Amanda Jane Bennett Mitchem. These Kahler/Mitchem people may belong to him.

Madison Mills Cemetery

*Lucinda Blake (d 1891) wife of J. Blake
We know she was Lucinda Mitchem, dau of William and Catherine Wirt Mitchem/Meacham. GOOD PICTURE
I bet Joseph Blake is also buried in Madison Mills, without a stone.....He died after 1900 (on that census in Madison Twp).

* From - Tombstone Inscriptions of Madison Twp (pub by the Fayette Co. Gen. Soc in 1999) the following:
John H. Baughn d 25 July 1875 (has GAR marker)
He married Malinda Mitchem, dau of William and Catherine Wirt Mitchem/Meacham
William M. Baughn d 1 Dec 1878 - age 18y 3m 29d - son of J. H. and M. Baughn
He was William Moses Baughn, son of John H. and Malinda Mitchem Baughn
Rosa C. Sollars d 12 Nov 1885 - age 20y 5m 7d - wife of W. F. Sollars
She was Rosilla Catherine Baughn, dau of John H. and Malinda Mitchem Baughn
Callie R. Sollars d 2 Dec 1885 - age 1m 6d - Callie was the dau of W. Frank Sollars and Rosa C. Baughn and granddaughter of John H. and Malinda Mitchem Baughn.
I have no idea when Malinda Mitchem Baughn died, but she was on the 1880 census, Madison Twp and two of Joseph and Lucinda Mitchem Blake's sons were living in her household. Another of the children of John and Malinda Mitchem Baughn, Sarah Elton Baughn (1856-1894) married Joseph S. Baldwin and they are buried in the Baldwin Cemetery which straddles the Fayette Co. and Madison Co. line (most of it in Madison Co.) west of U.S. 62 and S.R. 3. SO...Malinda could be buried in Baldwin Cemetery or in Madison Mills with her husband, John H. Baughn.

I need to try to find out if Madison Mills Cemetery has a sexton who might have the records. The cemetery is still being used, and someone must have a records of the plot owners and burials.

Now to the Mongold/Mungold bunch. I have not had time to really think this over. At www.familysearch.org (the LDS site) there is much MIS-information concerning the Jackson Co. OH Mongolds. One Meacham, Mary Ann who was born on 27 Jan 1815 in VA and married Jonathon Jacob Mongold on 12 Mar 1840 in Pulaski Co. VA is listed as the dau of James R. Meachum and Lucinda (?maiden) Meachum.......old James R. would have been 14 years old at her birth.......pretty bad research on someone's part. Will do more on the Mongolds in a short time.

Hope your computer accepts such a long letter ! !

I have not copied the records as yet, but will do so when I have time and will send the marriage records to you both. Some of the Fraziers do not seem to belong, but think you need to retain the info. It may "connect" at some point.
Yesterday, I mailed the birth and death records to both of you.
Dodi.....you wanted to know how much I would charge for the birth/death copies. I never charge a thing for sharing. After 30 years of doing genealogy, I probably still owe many people lots of money for items they have shared. Sharing is genealogy.

Mary, thanks for writing back so soon. The tombstone in Crocker Cemetery has the date April 15, 1837 for John E. Frasier on it. I just guess that's when his family thought he was born. Can you pick up attachments on your computer? I'll snail mail the family records to you soon.

The 1870 census records in Cherokee Co. is the one to look at to find the family. Laura Victoria Frasier was born in Cherokee Co. Kansas in 1871 so I am assuming that they lived in that area for awhile before she was born.

Hi Karen,
Your letter arrived today. I am in the process of typing some of the family group sheets for the Mitchem bunch. I usually wait to type the sheet until I have quite a bit of proven information or just information from some of the family members.
I have nothing for John E. and Mary, but what I picked up from your Genforum query. I did, yesterday, go to the LDS Family History Center Library here and look at their marriage record in Fayette Co. OH. It indeed....says John E. Frazier married Mary Ann Meecham on 7 Feb 1859. Also, notes on the license that John E. Frazier will be 21 years of age on 15 July 1859. This does not seem to agree with your date of birth for John E. Wonder if John fudged a little on his info??
Give me some ideas where John and Mary lived after their marriage so that I can get census records, etc. I looked at the 1870 census for Harrison Co. MO yesterday at the library, but they were not there even though the rest of the Mitchem, etc. bunch were on the census.
Talk later and will get my typing done soon. I work Wednesday and Thursday this week and out of town part of next week, so it will be a few days before
I get copies made.

Hi Karen,
I, long ago, adopted your Mary.........but just today, saw your query. Think she was probably born in Pike or Jackson Co. OH to William Meacham and Catherine Wirt from Montgomery Co. VA by 1840 (census). William and Catherine married in Montgomery Co. VA on 26 Jul 1827 and had the following children:
Elizabeth m Adam Butcher (to Harrison Co. MO)
James m #1 Rebecca Butcher Blake (to Harrison Co. MO)
Lucinda m Joseph Blake (lived in Fayette Co. OH)
Sarah J. m Jacob Wesley Frazier (to Harrison Co. MO)
Malinda m John Baughn (lived in Fayette Co. OH)
MARY m John Frazier (unable to find after 1850 when she was living in Jackson Co. OH with her father's brother, James Meacham. She was age 10 in 1850)
William Harrison m Ella Ann Conner (my great-grandparents) (to Cherokee Co. KS and Crawford Co. KS)
Most of those who have researched the Mitchem family felt sure that the Mary who married John Frazier in Fayette Co. was certainly the dau of William and Catherine, but we had no idea where she went after her marriage in Fayette Co. OH. Guess I should have looked in Kansas where my William and Ella moved............
Anxious to hear from you. I do not have any of my 30+ years of genealogy research on computer and am unable to "download". Would be happy to Xerox material if you think we connect.

He married Mary Mitchum on February 7, 1859 in Jeffersonville, Fayatt County, Ohio and moved to Kansas. He died on November 6, 1924 in Crawford County, Kansas. Mary was born on November 20, 1840 in Columbia, Ohio and died February 4, 1917 in Cherokee County, Kansas.

Thanks for any help.

I'm looking for a Frasier family who lived in Independence Kansas in the late 1800s. Lewis Franklin would have been born about 1881 and his wife Zora Mae Howe would have been born about 1890. Their children were Daisy, Maxine and Vivian. I have little information on these folks so if anyone out there can fill me on on their parents or anything else, I would appreciate it.

Dear Ms. Nunley;

I sure hope that I got your name and address right from your phone message and you got this letter all right. If things are misspelled, please forgive me.

Yes, I posted a message in July on GenForum about Mary Mitchum. She was married to my gg-grandfather John E. Frasier. John was born in Virginia, immigrated to Ohio, married Mary Mitchum and then brought his family to Kansas near Pittsburg.

Are you related to Mary Mitchum? I have been trying to find her family in Ohio for several years now.

Please e mail me at:

frasier-scott@cl.uh.edu

Or contact me by snail mail. I would love to hear more.

Hi there long lost cousin (distant tho it may be),

My name is Kay Stephens, decendent of John Eliza Frasier - and Karen Frasier's cousin. While she is off seeing the world:-) I am transcribing the records you sent her to our family tree. My, my you have done ALOT of work. THANK YOU!

The point of this not - other than to introduce myself, is where did you get your condensed version of the Census History? I have been to the library in San Antonio and numerous book stores and cannot locate any thin that even vaguely resembles it. If you could let me know it would be greatly appreciated. It would sure come in handy.

Thank you for your time.

John Frasier-W.VA, OH, MO, KS

I just recently received some information on this person. He was married to Mary Mitchum and they had 11 children, One of which was my ggrandfather. I know that this man fought in the Civil war for the union, and in doing such was disowned by his father in VA. I believe he may have enlisted in OH c. 1963.Unfortunately I have come to a brick wall and can not locate his parents. I do know that when he enlisted he changed the spelling in his name from FRAZIER to FRASIER.
I you have any leads or think we have a common relative please email me at: Genealogymom@wilkins26.freeserve.co.uk.

Thank you

My family tree maker is 7.0 you might have to upgrade in order for them to be compatible. I will make a CD disk for you when I get back from vacation in two weeks, which will include my whole family on my mother's and father's side. You might not want all of this, but when you download eliminate what you don't want.

I sent you a picture of the John E. and Mary Frasier family. It's not a very good picture because it is only a contact made from a negative that we found. My cousin is getting a real picture done from the negative and I will send you one when it is finished. The picture of the woman (standing), man (seated) and tiny baby on his lap are:
Laura Victoria Frasier Brown, Cyrus Brown and baby Glen Brown.

Talk to you later,

Karen

Hi -
I do have Family Tree Maker installed on my computer. For some reason, I have had trouble down-loading material sent to me by other people. My daughter, who is good and best with computers cannot understand the problem.
She sat at my computer two hours one day..........and just shook her head. I need to call my computer man and ask him to come by.
You might go ahead and send it and we will see what happens??

I know what you mean about taking on other families. I am curently working on my husbands gene. and it is just hard to know where to stop. I get real interested in people who aren't teven ralated. But his family came from VW (WV), PA and Ohio and so much intertwining occurs you just never know where they might connect again. Well, I'm off to a TX style barBQ, with FRIED turkey- a TX speciality. Thanks for the copy of the census form. I'll take good care of it.

Thanks again

Hi Cousin Kim!!!

Yes the Frazier/Frasier brothers (Jacob and John) did marry the Mitchem/Mitcham/Meacham sisters (Mary and Sarah). (These different spelling are driving me crazy!). I am so excited I can hardly type.

I would like to have any information that you might have on the Mitchems and the decendents of Jacob and Sarah. I will share with you all my information on John and Mary. The people that I have cc'd on this e-mail are Barbara Wathen (bwathen72@juno.com) the wife of the g-grandson of John E. Frazier and Mary Nunneley (Nunne002@aol.com) a direct decendent of Mary Mitchem Frasier's brother William Harrison Mitchem. You might want to contact them also for more information that they have. We're all cousins.

Thanks so much for e-mailing me back so soon. You made my day.

Jacob Wesley Frazier is my gg grandfather but I know nothing about him except he was born in VA, probably about 1840. He could well be the brother of your John Eliza Frasier. I have information about the Mitchum (Meacham) family, who Jacob married into. He married Sarah Jane and the info. I have shows Sarah had a sister, Mary, who married a John E. Frazier/Frasier and lived in Harrison Co, MO and later in Cherokee Co., KS. Jacob and John could have married sisters. If you still think this is a good connection, I can give you the name of my source for the Mitchum family info. She has alot of info. Do you have anything else about the Frazier's? I'd love to hear whatever you have. I have a new e-mail, which is KimberlyJJones@yahoo.com I also am willing to share info on the descendents of Jacob and Sarah, if you're interested.
